Youth Protest Terror Sentences

Mercy High School.

Cologne, Germany — (RNS) — A protest was made here by the Federation of Roman Catholic Youth in Germany against new "terror; sentences" imposed on Zone courts, It urged the German public to demand the release of the imprisoned young people.

The West German south organization, which claims 750,000 adherents, said that 18 high school students in Werdam, Saxony, recently were sentenced to a total of 130 years in prison for boycott agitation against the (East) German Democratic Re-

According to the Catholic or-ganization, the youths, all of them between 16 and 21, were convicted of having distributed anti-Communist Jeaffels and handbills protesting against the death sentence given to Hermann Joseph Flade, a Catholic high school student of Olbernhau, Saxony. It said that the group, three of them 17-year-old girls, were given individual terms of from two to 15
