Outdoor Nativity Crib Set By St. Stanislaus Groups

An outdoor Christmas Crib project sponsored by the Holy Name of Jesus and the Holy Name of Mary Societies of St. Stanislaus Parish will be erected on Hudson Avenue on the parish grounds.

The crib will be illuminated and Christmas Carols and Hymns will be heard in the background.

THE PROJECT was started during the summer months and the men of the Holy Name Society supplied the lumber and labor for the construction of the crib. John Stwicki and Leo Zielinski were the carpenters.

The Ladies of the Holy Name of Mary Society purchased the Statues to be used in the Crib. This will be the first outdoor crib to have been erected at St. Stanislaus Parish.

This past week both the Holy Name of Jesus and the Holy Name of Mary societies of St. Stanislaus held successful Christmas parties. The Holy Name men sponsored a Christmas Party for the children of St. Stanislaus School on Wednesday, Dec. 19, complete with Santa Claus presenting a little gift to each one. Movies were shown to the children.

St. John Fisher College's First Formal Success

Yuletide holiday decorations at red, green and gold gave a colorful and gay spirit to the first social event of the students at St. John Fisher College last evening at the Country Club of Rochester.

Patrons for the first formal Christmas Dance were Mr. and Mrs. Frederick R. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Fawcett, Mr. and Mrs. F. William Gregory, Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah G. Hickey, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William T. Howe, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Keenan, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Daniel G. Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Francis McConville, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Mathias, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Odenbach.

After the singing a Christmas party for the scouts will be given by the troop committee and leaders.

Rochester KC Plan Annual Trip To Bath VA Hospital

Holiday cheer for the 1500 disabled veterans at the Bath, Va. facility will be taken by a bus load of Knights of Columbus of Rochester Council on Saturday, Dec. 28.

Delegation will be in charge of Chairman Carl Healy, who has arranged for a 7-day stay.

AT THE HOSPITAL, entertainment will be provided on arrival and gifts will be distributed throughout the hospital.

On the return trip the Rochester Knights will be guests of Danville Council at lunch. Donations for the trip are being made with financial help.
