

Holiday Dance Parties Set At Immaculate Youth Center

A large forty-foot Christmas tree will decorate the spacious Immaculate Auditorium on Wednesday evening, Dec. 26, when the young set holds their annual holiday dance.

This year the committee, under the direction of William Doolin, expects an invitation from only to high school groups but also to the young people of the city.

THE IMMACULATE Dancing Center is affiliated with the U.S.O. of Rochester and many services men and women have been attending the weekly dancing parties.

Miss Betty Cole, a student of Nazareth Academy, has been awarded the spotlights as vocalist with the popular orchestra of Joe Nolan. She will sing many of the Christmas songs together with the "top" tunes of the day. Pauline Dimitry of Madison High School will be seen in several dance routines with the band.

The Immaculate has also planned a Winter-Wonderland dance for Friday Dec. 28. This will be an informal stire dance. Also, the annual New Year's Dancing party is scheduled for New Year's Eve, Monday, Dec. 31.

State Treasurer Elected by CDA
Election of Mrs. Jane Benzling of Mt. Vernon to the state treasurer's office to fill the unexpired term of the late Miss Elizabeth M. Welch of Cohoes is announced by Miss Marie Curry state regent, Catholic Daughters of America.

Miss Margaret Dacey of Oneida is succeeding Mrs. Benzling as state monitor.

St. Bonaventure Men Plan Dance

Fr. Haffey Leads HN Loop Bowlers

Auburn—Father Haffey came through with 222 in the last game to give him a 568 total the high for the day in the St. Aloysius Holy Name Bowling League. But despite Father Haffey's total and John Bodnar's 507, Gonzaga went down to defeat at the hands of a hard-fighting Loyola team one point to three.

Ronnie McQueeney with 532 was the spark-plug for Loyola. Ronnie's fine bowling inspired John Bacon and Ed Lober who were a great help in their team's victory over Gonzaga.

Paul J. Graney had games of 191, 193 and 190 for a 564 total the second high for the day and led Canisius to a three to one victory over the powerhouse Georgetown team. Francis Bennett, a freshman bowler who will make bowling history before the year is out, came through with 516 and Nate Navarro had 514 to help Canisius gain a tie for second place with Gonzaga.

Jack Madden's 212 game and 519 total combined with John Miskelli's 510 and Anthony Babo's 175 game helped Georgetown to their lone tally.

Frank Stapleton, who is enjoying a fine year of bowling came through with a 542 total to lead the invincible Santa Clara team to a three to one victory over the red-hot Notre Dame team. Captain John Donnelly's 534, St. Champ John's 528 and Bill Dunn's 512 were a big help.

Frank Geno with 514 was high man for Notre Dame while

Freddy Gilbert had two good games of 185 and just missed the 500 mark.

Red Cross Changes Respiration Method

The American National Red Cross has announced that the back pressure-arm lift method of artificial respiration has been adopted in preference to the prone pressure method which has been standard in this country for over thirty years.

The revolutionary change came about as a result of extensive research sponsored by the Armed Forces, the Red Cross and the American Medical Association in an effort to find a better method of manual resuscitation.

Experiments performed on animals and anesthetized persons revealed that several methods of artificial respiration ventilated the lungs more efficiently than prone pressure.

The back pressure-arm lift method was found to be best suited to general use, because it not only provides a better exchange of air but is easy to learn and apply.
