DeSales High Court Quint Opens New Gym With Stunning Win Over Penn Yan

Geneva—Opening its new gymnasium, DeSales High School basketball team made it especially auspicious by upsetting Penn Yan Academy five, 42-36 on Dec. 19.

FOR DeSALES, the night opened a new era of the hardwood sport. With a gymnasium, the Putney St. School, according to Don Fradenburgh, Geneva Times sports editor, can be expected to rank high in area-league circles.

Marking the opening of the modern and well-equipped gymnasium, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. William H. McPadden, pastor of St. Stephen's Church and dean of the Geneva Deanery, tossed a brand new ball to start the game for referee Red McDonald.

The Rev. Raymond P. Nolan, DeSales High School principal, greeted the fans in a brief pre-game ceremony. Father Nolan said he was pleased that the opening game in the new gymnasium was with Penn Yan Academy.

The Saints, coached by Bill Dilla, however proved they have come a long way. In the game with Penn Yan, they broke away from a 15-13 deadlock in the third quarter to take a 34-37 lead. The game was in doubt until the final three minutes of play.

Crusaders Club Helps Mark Sampson Base's First Year

Sampson Air Force Base—Keeping in stride with other base celebrations marking Sampson's completion of one full year as an Air Force indoctrination center, the Catholic Crusaders Club held their first annual Christmas party Dec. 19 in the Parish Hall.

A highlight of the evening's activities was the showing of the color slides depicting Japan and Korea by Father Major USAF Albert C. Steffens. Father Steffens, who was formerly stationed in Japan and who is also a veteran of the Korean battlefront, arrived only recently at this base and this event was the first opportunity to show the slides to the club members.

FATHER STEFFENS also gave a fine vocal description of the scenes viewed by the audience. A native of Brooklyn and attached to that diocese before entering the service he was quite active in Ancient Order of Hibernians circles in civilian life.

A fine evening's entertainment was rounded out by the serving of refreshments and the presentation of a few acts by some of the club members. The party marked the final club meeting until after the New Year.

LeMoyné Men Set 2 Holiday Fetes

LeMoyné College students home for the holidays have scheduled two events for the vacation period. Frank King is in charge of arrangements for a sleigh ride and supper party to follow on Saturday evening, Dec. 29.

New Year's Eve will be celebrated by the students and their guests who will attend the Mid night Mass at the Pro-Cathedral and be entertained after the mass at the home of Gerald Tucker, 67 Clay Ave.

A senior at LeMoyné, Tucker is this year president of the debating club, the Chaumont Forum. The committee in charge for the New Year's Eve party consists of Gerald LeBlanc, Morris Hyde, Kevin Mahoney and James Kreig.

Genevans Attend 2 Niagara Seniors Make 'Who's Who'

Geneva—Midnight masses were celebrated in St. Stephen's and St. Francis de Sales churches Christmas eve. A special mass was celebrated in St. Francis de Sales School to accommodate the overflow crowd.

St. Stephen's men and boys choir of fifty voices made its first appearance at Midnight Mass under the direction of Prof. Leland Flota. Mass of the Shepherds by Pietro Von was sung.

Midnight Mass at St. Francis de Sales Church was preceded by a half hour of Christmas carols including the Cherubim Song by D. S. Bortniansky. Soloists were Edgar Roesch Sr., Dominic Caronvale, Carl Morabito, and Billy Jo Carter.

Godfrey D. Brown is their director at St. Francis de Sales and Rita Cleveland, organist.

Cited For Weather Reports Health Seal Drive Workers Thanked

Auburn—James E. Leston, widely known employee of the Water Department of Auburn, was cited by the United States Weather Bureau for being one of the many public spirited men and women in the country who have voluntarily reported weather observations for many years.

Leston is stationed at the upper pumping station of the water department where he is an engineer. His work as a volunteer in weather reporting includes noting the temperature at different times throughout the day as well as recording unusual signs of weather.

Leston has been cited in a booklet entitled "Cooperative Weather Observers" a publication of the Weather Bureau.

He is a communicant of St. Aloysius Church and an active member of Auburn Knights of Columbus.
