J. Fazzary's 212 Tops St. Mary's Bowling League

Watkins Glen — Aquinas and St. Bonaventure teams are tied in St. Mary's Bowling League as of Jan. 2.

In the bowling on Wednesday of last week, Aquinas won two games from the Notre Dame team. The St. Bonaventure five captured all three games from Holy Cross.

St. Bonaventure rolled the high 3-games for the week 2798, and the high individual game 975. H. Andrews hit 523 for the high three game individual score.

High individual games were bowled by J Fazzary of St. Bonaventure, 212 and 202; H. Andrews, also of St Bonaventure, 202, and N. Paridiso, of the Notre Dame five, 202.

Three Parish School Cage Leagues Vie on CYA Court

By HOWARD F. MEATH
CYA Program Director

Columbus Youth Association, again this year, is playing host to the basketball players from many parish grammar schools and parish high school groups.

Leagues have been running since the early part of December and the contests develop a great deal of spirit and excitement for the players and the spectators.

On the high school level, at present, the Mt. Carmel team seams to hold the cherished first place position. I've been told they intend to stay there to the finish. On the other hand, the remaining eleven teams have a different view.

In the grammar school circles it is again Father Patrick Moffatt's St. Francis Xavier team on top in the Eastern Division and "Dan" Garland's St. Monica team in the Western Division. The competition is keen in these two leagues and with better than half the season yet to go anything can happen.

It is a pleasing sight to the league officers and team members to see the many parishioners attending the games of their respective teams.

PAROCHIAL SCHOOL Basketball League standings follow.

A committee was chosen with John Byrne, Chairman, Patrick Fogarty and Margaret Mary Murphy assisting John Byrne, chairman, has promised an enjoyable evening. Guest speakers will be Rev. Donald J Murphy of Aquinas Institute, John Ryan and Martin Brophy.

Following the banquet there will be dancing with music under direction of Chris Penrose.

Patrick Murphy, President of the Association, is in charge of reservations.

GIs Honored Mary Chaplain Recalls For Corning Unit

Corning — The Rev. Ralph Neagle, a Catholic chaplain at Bath Veterans Administration Hospital, was guest speaker at the first anniversary of the "First Saturday" luncheon at the Baron Steuben Hotel.

Describing his experiences as a chaplain during World War II, Father Neagle said that one of the most notable facts he observed was the devotion of the Catholic soldiers to the Blessed Mother. He said that this devotion was not limited only to the Catholic boys but was shared by those of other faiths. Father Neagle served at Fort Jackson, S. C. and on Guadacanal and Okinawa.

FATHER NEAGLE, who was introduced by the Rev. Daniel Hogan, assistant pastor of St. Vincent de Paul's Church, moderator of the Corning Deanery, asked the group to continue their invocations to Mary, Mother of God, for world peace.

Seated also at the speaker's table were Mrs. Edith Griffin, president of the Deanery, Mrs. James Ward, grand regent of Court St. Joseph, Catholic Daughters of America; Mrs. Stanley Manning, president of the Painted Post Catholic Women's Club; Mrs. Norman C. Murray, deanery secretary, and Mrs. John R. F. Osborne, luncheon chairman.

Assisting Mrs. Osborne with arrangements were Mrs. Murray of St. Patrick's Parish, Mrs. John Brady, St. Mary's Parish, Mrs. Ward, St. Vincent de Paul's Parish, and Miss Mary Hart, general ticket chairman. Mrs. Madeline Lincoln was accompanist in group singing.

Jones Repeats To Top Auburn Loop

Auburn H. Champ Jones, the number one bowler of the St. Aloysius Holy Name bowling league, for the second week in a row led the league with a 584 total obtained from games of 216, 188 and 180. But despite Jones' fine total and Bill Dunn's 551 and Joe Stapleton's 526, the Invincible Santa Clara team proved vincible to Loyola who won the match three points away from first.

Ed Lober was the key man for Loyola in their victory over Santa Clara. Ed was picking splits and spares consistently. John Bacon was a help in victory.

Father Haffey with 583, the second high of the day, and Charlie Rice with his doubles and triples, led Gonzaga to a three to one victory over the former powerhouse team, Georgetown.

Bud Wilson had 522. Vern Pinckney 508 and Jack Madden 501 but it was Pinckney's 214 in the second game that really gave Georgetown their lone point.

Captain Joe Pucino, Emilio Colella and Francis Bennett combined their efforts in the first and third games to give Canisius a three to one victory over Notre Dame and moved their team closer to first place.

Freddy Gilbert with 518 was best for Notre Dame while John Terry was next with 506. Yet it was Frank O'Connor's 185 in the second game that gained the lone tally for the Fighting Irish.

Open House Draws 5000 To Parish Gym-Auditorium

More than 5,000 people attended the open house last Sunday afternoon to view the beautiful and spacious new gymnasium-auditorium of St. Mary's church in Elmira.

Throughout the afternoon and evening throngs were escorted on a tour of the new $300,000 structure by students of the sixth grade.

THE BUILDING will be used exclusively for parish activities and cannot be rented to outsiders due to present city-wide zoning restrictions.

Rev. Thomas J. Toole, pastor, was warmly congratulated by all who visited the imposing structure. Father Toole was named pastor of St. Mary's church eight years ago today succeeding the Rev. J. J. Moriarty.
