Bridge To Peace Cited For Women's Group In Auburn

Auburn—"Let us be enthusiastic in the service of Mary —especially in regard to the Rosary, in regard to frequent reception of Holy Communion, in regard to the practice of [illegible]. It is the bridge which will lead us to that peace we are [illegible] for" was the plea of the Rev. Clarence W. Gardner, assistant pastor of St. Alphonsus Church, Auburn, at the [illegible] Saturday Luncheon held at Osborne Hotel, Jan. 5.

The Rev. Bernard F. Daly, O. Carm., prior of Whitefriars, was a guest of the group and said the prayers before and after meals. Father Daly also led the group in prayers for the late Mrs. George F. Diehl, Sr., who had a record of unbroken attendance at the luncheon meetings.

MRS. GEORGE A. SNYDER, who presided, reminded the women of the monthly meeting of St. Monica's Guild at 8 a.m. Mass each Friday at Whitefriars. She explained that all who have priests or seminarians in their families are invited to attend the Guild Mass which is offered for the men studying for the priesthood or already ordained.

Mrs. Harry M. Dillon, chairman of reservations, was assisted by Mrs. Fred L. Armstrong and Mrs. Philip A. O'Connell. Music was in charge of Miss Mary F. Dunn who accompanied the group in singing a hymn to the Blessed Mother. Mrs. C. Eugene Carpenter is president of Auburn Deanery Council, DCCW, which sponsors the luncheons.

Spain Clergy Going To Latin America

Madrid—(RNS)—Two hundred Catholic priests will be sent from Spain every year to help relieve the clergy shortage in Latin America, according to Bishop Casimiro Morcillo y Gongalez of Bilbao.

Bishop Morcillo made the announcement on his return from a tour of Central and South America in his capacity as president of La Obra de Cooperacion Sacerdotal Hispanoamericana (Work of Priestly Cooperation in Spanish America).

Priests assigned by the Obra go to Latin America on a voluntary basis, serving for from three to five years, with the option of remaining or returning to Spain when their term has expired. They will come from all the Spanish dioceses and will be given a preliminary six-months' special indoctrination course before sailing for the New World. The priests will serve in established dioceses and not in missionary jurisdictions.

Luke Bergan Heads Auburn Fire Department As Chief

Auburn—Luke J. Bergan, widely known in Catholic lay circles, here, is the new fire chief of Auburn.

He was sworn in by City Clerk George B. Shamon in the presence of 30 friends relatives and well wishers in the council chambers of Memorial City Hall on Dec. 26. He is the brother of the late Rt. Rev. Msgr. William F. Bergan, former chancellor of the Diocese of Rochester.

City Manager George F. Train opened the ceremony and said "Everyday of my public life I wish that I could promote someone as willing and able to do his job as Luke Bergan. He said the administration was fortunate in being able to add the name of Chief Bergan to those of former chiefs James S. Doyle and Bernard F. Rooney who were present.

THE CITY MANAGER pinned the fire chief badge on Mr. Bergan while the latters' wife and three children watched the ceremony with pride.

City Clerk Shamon administered the oath of office and the new chief received congratulations from Mayor Edward T. Boyle, City Clerk Shamon and Mr. Train.

Mayor Boyle said "It is an honor to elevate you to the highest office in your department which we believe to be one of the finest fire departments in any city of our size in the country.

He referred to the "great records" made by retired chiefs Doyle and Rooney and added that "it was wonderful to know that you are following in their footsteps."

Mayor Boyle said the new chief's courage, honesty and ability were unquestioned and that he entrusted the lives of [illegible] people in Auburn and their property to Chief Bergan.

THE MAYOR added that making Mr. Bergan chief was probably the last opportunity I will have to promote someone before leaving the office of mayor of Auburn, but that he was happy to have had the honor of making Mr. Bergan fire chief.

Mrs. Bergan joined with retiring chiefs Rooney and Doyle in paying tribute to her husband's abilities. With her were her two daughters, Helen and Patricia, and son William.

Also present to witness the ceremonies were Mr. and Mrs. John Kinsella, Christopher J. McEvoy, acting lieutenant for the fire department, Edward J. Conboy, city assessor, Charles W. Conboy of the fire department, Miss Margaret Bergan and Mrs. Mary J. Hodgson, the chief's sisters, and Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Parker.
