

Bridge To Peace Cited For Women's Group In Auburn

Auburn—Let us be enthusiastic in the service of Mary especially in regard to the Rosary, in regard to frequent reception of Holy Communion, in regard to the practice of prayer.

It is the bridge which will lead us to that peace we are all seeking for. This was the plea of Rev. Clarence W. Gardner, pastor of St. John's Church, Auburn, at the 10th Anniversary Luncheon held at the Pines Hotel, Jan. 5.

The Rev. Bernard F. Daly, O. C. M., prior of Whitefriars, was a guest of the group and said the group was formed before and after meals. Father Daly also led the group in prayer for the late Mrs. George F. Diehl, Sr., who had a record of unbroken attendance at the luncheon meetings.

Family Sees Fire Chief Sworn In

Luke Bergan Heads Auburn Fire Department As Chief

Auburn—Luke J. Bergan, widely known in Catholic lay circles, here, is the new fire chief of Auburn.

He was sworn in by City Clerk George B. Shannon in the presence of 30 friends, relatives and well-wishers in the council chambers of Memorial City Hall on Dec. 28.

The mayor added that in making Mr. Bergan chief was probably the last opportunity I will have to promote someone before leaving the office of mayor of Auburn, but that he was happy to have had the honor of making Mr. Bergan fire chief.

Mr. Bergan joined with retiring chiefs Rooney and Doyle in paying tribute to her husband's ability. With her were her two daughters, Helen and Patricia, and son William.

Also present to witness the ceremonies were Mr. and Mrs. John Kinsey, Christopher J. McEvoy, acting lieutenant for the fire department, Edward J. Conboy, city assessor, Charles W. Conboy of the fire department, Miss Margaret Bergan and Mrs. Mrs. W. H. Hillborn.

City Clerk Shannon administered the oath of office and the new chief received congratulations from Mayor Edward T. Boyle, City Clerk Shannon and Mr. Train.

Mayor Boyle said it is an honor to elevate you to the highest office in your department which we believe is one of the finest fire departments in any city of our size in the country.

He referred to the great records made by retired chiefs Boyle and Rooney and added that it was wonderful to know that you are following in their footsteps.

Mayor Boyle said the chief's courage, honesty and ability were unquestioned and that he entrusted the lives of the citizens to his hands.

Mrs. Diehl Rites Held In Auburn

Auburn—Funerals of Mrs. Winifred Lawver Diehl, wife of George P. Diehl, Jr., of 177 1/2 Van Anken St., was held from 9 to 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Avery E. Neagle, 1401 Home Monday morning, Dec. 23.

A Solemn Requiem High Mass was celebrated at St. Aloysius Church at 9:00 o'clock with the Rev. John B. Crowley, pastor, as celebrant, the Rev. Joseph P. Hartley as deacon, and the Rev. Charles McCarthy of St. Mary's Church as sub-deacon.

Burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery where the committal services were read by Father Crowley assisted by Father Hartley. The bearers were Terrence K. Madden, Joseph Young, Dennis McNabb, Charles Kernan and Cornelius Purdy.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Diehl is survived by one daughter, Miss Genevieve Diehl of Auburn, two sons, Raymond and George P. Diehl, Jr. of New Holland, Penn.; three sisters, Mrs. Thomas Kirwin, Mrs. John Madden, and Mrs. Emmett McNabb, all of Auburn; a brother, James Lawler of Auburn, four grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Diehl, a life long resident of Auburn, died at the Parker Hospital in Sayre, Penn., after an illness of two weeks. She was a member of the Rosary and Scapular Society of St. Aloysius Church, the Merry Hospital Sewing Circle, and the First Saturday Luncheon Club of the Auburn Deaconery Council, National Council of Catholic Women.

Mrs. Diehl Rites Opposes Daily Prayer In Schools

New York—The New York State Board of Regents today opposed the New York State Board of Education's proposal to require daily prayer in public schools.

The board of regents said it was opposed to the board of education's proposal because it would infringe upon the rights of the parents to determine what their children should be taught in school.

The board of regents also said it was opposed to the proposal because it would require the board of education to create a public hearing on the matter before acting on the regents' proposal.

The letter stated the belief of the board of regents was based on the fact that the constitution of this state forbids the establishment of a religion, and asked for an opportunity to present this view.

Children's Program. Mrs. M. A. McFarland, a member of the board of regents, said she was opposed to the proposal because it would infringe upon the rights of the parents to determine what their children should be taught in school.

It is the belief of the board of regents that the board of education's proposal would require the board of education to create a public hearing on the matter before acting on the regents' proposal.

The board of regents also said it was opposed to the proposal because it would require the board of education to create a public hearing on the matter before acting on the regents' proposal.
