

March Of Dimes' Dance Set Immaculate Youth Center

Immaculate Dancing Center will stage its annual benefit in cooperation with the March of Dimes Friday, Jan. 18, at the youth center. The theme of this party will be "A dance for those who dance."

Agostinelli and Kay McCarthy are co-chairmen for this special appeal. Mary Agnes O'Grady, a victim of polio and a student at Nazareth Academy, will be the guest for the evening. MUSIC FOR dancing will be supplied by Joe Nolan and his thirteen-piece orchestra. Vocal numbers will be heard from Betty Cole, also a student at Nazareth Academy. A reception committee will be made up of high school pupils from West Hill and Madison.

This evening (Friday, January 18th) attractive sound movies of the Women's Air Force will be shown during the intermission.

Cole Hobbyists Invited
Hobbyists between the ages of 12 and 18 are invited to the Rochester Junior Numismatic meeting at Rochester Museum, Friday, Jan. 18, at 7:45 p. m. A program of talks augmented with projected slides on coins and coin collecting is planned.

LeMoyné Game To Draw 500 Of Aquinas Backers

Five hundred Aquinas Institute students and team supporters will attend the preliminary game between Aquinas of Rochester and the Le Moyné College Jays on Friday night, Jan. 18, in Syracuse War Memorial Auditorium. This game will be followed by the tilt between the Siena and Le Moyné College variables.

The Aquinas students have been invited by the Rochester Club of Le Moyné to have their evening meal in the college cafeteria after which they will be taken on a short tour of the college buildings and later attend the game in a body.

The Dewey Ave. team will be looking for its sixth straight victory of the 1951-52 season. So far Basil Marella's charges have triumphed over St. John's Seminary of Montour Falls, Hobart College JV, ARO five of Windsor, Ont., Niagara Falls Vocational School and Assumption High of Windsor, Ont.

Only information on the Le Moyné JV squad is that the starting five averages near the 6.3 mark.

Kilmer Club To Hear Urzetta

Sammy Urzetta of St. Jerome's parish, East Rochester, popular former National Amateur Golf Champion, will be guest speaker at the monthly dinner meeting of the Joyce Kilmer Club of Blessed Sacrament parish at 7 p. m. Monday, Jan. 21, in the school auditorium.

Jack Carey, club president, will preside. Also scheduled is narration of club officers. Dancing will follow the brief nominal meeting.
