Rochester Priest On Mediterranean

On a Mediterranean cruise of the U.S.S. Leyte (CV-23) Chaplain (Lieut.) Leo Ward celebrated Mass aboard the carrier from Sept. 3 to Dec. 24, 1931. (Photo at right). On a visit on the Feast of the Immaculate Conception to the shrine of "Our Lady of the Crowned, in Gibraltar's Cathedral, the priest from the Rochester diocese baptized nine converts. Shown in photo below also are the Navy men's sponsors. This ceremony followed the cruise which included stops at Augusta, Sicily; Genoa, LaSpezia, Naples, Rome, Milan, Florence, Pisa, in Italy; Cannes, France; Athens and Corinth in Greece and Izoni and Ephesus in Turkey. Chaplain Ward is the brother of the Rev. Lawrence E. Ward, assistant pastor of Corpus Christi Church.

Mercy Guild Picks Slogan, Opens Membership Drive

Plans for the annual membership drive of the Mercy Guild of the Little Flower were made at a recent meeting with Mrs. Robert Benedict, Chairman.

All promoters are requested to meet their captains and receive final instruction. The slogan for this drive is "Each member a new member."

ALL MEMBERS of the Guild share in the daily prayers of the Sisters of Mercy and nine Masses a month are offered for their intentions.

The Rev. Richard T. Turner, chaplain of the Motherhouse, will be guest speaker at a group new members at the meeting scheduled for Tuesday, Feb. 12, at 1:30 p. m. at the Catholic Women's Club.

New officers include Mrs. Bryan Ford, president; the Mesdames Louise Price, Emeritus; Michael Crine, Edward Schuler, vice presidents; Ada Meng, Treasurer; Mrs. Raymond Brown, financial secretary and Mrs. William Lawson, recording secretary.

Mrs. Butler To Head St. Cecilia's Guild

Mrs. Kenneth Butler was elected president of St. Cecilia's Guild in the church hall, Currier Road, on Jan. 8. The new officers were elected to succeed the Board of Directors who presided over the group since the guild's formation in September.

Named with Mrs. Butler were: Mrs. Walter Baker, vice president; Mrs. Oliver Ashman, secretary; and Mrs. Joseph Adams, treasurer.

After the business session, members made a tour of inspection through the school which they reported (assembly decorated in bright, sunny colors throughout).
