GOD LOVE YOU!

By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

* * *

PAIN is sacrifice without love; sacrifice is pain with love. Hell is pain without love; Purgatory is pain with love; Heaven is love without pain . . . 100,000 Catholics are praying daily for the missions on our World Mission Rosary. We will bless and send one to you if you request it and include an offering of $2 for the Holy Father's Missions. . . . The mountains are not changed when the mists lift; but they are glorified in being unveiled. God's glory is not changed by the conversion of the pagans, but His name is glorified when His beauty is revealed to them. . . . The Church has tens of thousands of martyrs in Asia and Eastern Europe. Our Lord expects us to have the martyr-spirit and to make sacrifices to help our 100,000 missionaries spread the faith. . . . How long have you been reading this column? Has it ever inspired you to make a sacrifice either in reparation for your sins or because you so love Our Lord and His Mother that you want others in India, Japan and Oceania to share their love?

GOD LOVE YOU to M. C. McM. "I'm not regularly employed, but I will send ten percent of my earnings to the Holy Father's Missions." . . . GOD LOVE YOU to Mr. C. E. T. Sr.: "One night I had a bad attack asthma during which I thought of all the half dollars I had saved. So here is $74.00 worth for the Holy Father's Missions". . . . GOD LOVE YOU to A. D.: 'My maid was ill last Saturday, so I cleaned the apartment myself. Here is the $5 for the Holy Father's Missions." . . . GOD LOVE YOU to Mrs. M. B.: "Sickness is a luxury. I promised to send the Holy Father's Missions all I would save in doctor's bills, if God would make me well. Our blessings are multiplying now, both a son and a daughter entering the religious life. . . . GOD LOVE YOU to M. E. and B. S.: "We are poor working girls. We decided to add two abstinence days each week to Friday so we can send $1 a week to help convert the pagans." . . . GOD LOVE YOU to G. M. C.: "I won $25 for a dress sign. Use it for the leper-missions." . . . GOD LOVE YOU to M. L., a Jew who won a $5 election bet from a Catholic, Mrs. M. S. and said, "Send it to the God Love You Missions.'"

EXTRACTS FROM letters to our desk: Fiji Islands: "Thanks for the $58. We painted the chapel of our leper colony. There are 17 of us for these poor people." . . . Japan: "We are bringing the Blessed Sacrament to hospitals, homes and huts where our lay catechists teach and console on evenings after their daily work." . . . Philippines: "We began Perpetual Adoration in our parish last month for the conversion of Russia. Send 50 Holy Hour books to keep the devotion alive." . . . Nyasaland: "I am a poor beggar priest with 19,000 Christians to care for in an area of 40 miles which I cover on a bicycle." . . . Iraq: "The Mohammedan and Jewish children in our schools contribute to the Propagation of the Faith and are just as generous as the Christians. But when the time comes for us to buy 50 pairs of shoes and stockings, we cannot be as generous as we would like." . . . South India: "Our convent is in a pagan land and a Communist center. We have two rooms for 25 students, the other is a chapel. Due to lack of aid and proper food, most of the sisters are anemic and sickly." . . . South Africa: "We.. have 800 Catholics and on Church though we have been struggling for four years to acquire funds. Mass is said in a schoolroom."

Give up cigarettes for a week or highballs for a month or movies for a week and send the money you saved to the Holy Father's Missions. Send your sacrifice to the Holy Father's representative in the United States, Most Reverend Fulton J. Sheen, National Director of The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 109 E. 38th St., New York 16x, N. Y. or your diocesan director, Very Rev. Msgr. John S. Randall, 50 Chestnut Street, Rochester 4, New York.

Ex-Buffalo Man Named In NCCM Television Plan

Dean McCarthy who has done radio and newspaper work in Buffalo will have an important role in an extensive television program envisioned by the National Council of Catholic men.

McCarthy has been named assistant television program manager of the NCCM according to Martin H. Work, NCCM executive secretary.

McCarthy formerly was assistant to the director of the N. C. W. C. Youth Department. A Phi Beta Kappa graduate of the Catholic University of America, Mr. McCarthy, while in the military service, wrote and produced several shows which toured the military installations in Germany, Italy and Austraia.

THE NCCM now is engaged in the program of "Frontiers of Faith," the National Broadcasting Company's religious television feature, and contemplates an expanded program of TV operations.

Included in the program, it was stated, will be an extensive study of the possibilities of establishing a television moral rating plan; creation of a film information center to provide information on all suitable Catholic films and at the same time investigate the possibilities of Catholic film productions; formation of a script service to diocesan television directors to enable local groups in entering the TV field.

Work stated that the NCCM plans to work closely with the TV networks in an effort to secure more time for national Catholic television programs. He said that the council hoped within a year to have crystallized the activities it has planned.

25-Year Pins Given 2 Ovid CDA Members

Ovid—Twenty-five year membership pins were presented to Mrs. Margaret D. Martin and Miss Mamie Murphy by Mrs. Josephine Engel, grand regent, at the December meeting of Court St. Elizabeth, Catholic Daughters of America in Ovid.

Mrs. Engel expressed the appreciation of the Court to the two members "for the many fine things they had done for the Court."

Mrs. Martin is the Court organist and Miss Murphy is a trustee.

The Rev. Thomas J. Florack, new assistant pastor of Holy Cross Church, here was a guest at the meeting.

Following the business session, the annual Christmas party was held. Gifts were exchanged and a lunch was served.

Fr. Walsh, Dante Authority, Dies

New York —(NC)— Requiem Mass was offered in the Fordham University Church here, Dec. 20, for the Rev. Gerald G. Walsh, S.J., former professor of medieval cultural history and an outstanding American scholar. Father Walsh died Dec. 17, 1951, in Mary Immaculate Hospital, Jamaica, L. I., at the age of 59.

Fr. Walsh

(Father Walsh was commencement speaker for Nazareth College at the exercises held on June 6, 1945.)

At the time of his death Father Walsh was engaged with a large group of other scholars in a new translation of the Fathers of the Church. He left Fordham last February to devote full time to the project, which was begun in 1946. He carried on the work at Inisfada, the Jesuit house of studies at Manhasset, L. I.

From 1939 to 1949 Father Walsh edited Thought, the Fordham quarterly. He was the author of several books, including a biography of Dante, on whom he was an authority.

His teaching career included posts as professor of church history at Woodstock College, Md., from 1929 to 1934; history lecturer at the Fordham Summer School from 1930 to 1934; professor of medieval history at the Gregorian University in Rome, 1934 to 1936; and head of the department of Italian studies at the Fordham Graduate School, 1937 to 1938. After this last assignment he became professor of medieval history of the Fordham Graduate School.
