Written by Martin Chicoine, the play dramatizes the story of the Feast of the Purification. It has modern-day setting with a flash back" to the meeting in the Temple between the Holy Family and Simeon. The play is based of the writings of St. Luke. The play has seven characters, is staged in five short scenes, requires no elaborate scenery and requires half an hour to enact. The radio script is adapted from the play and requires 15 minutes to produce with a cast of six persons. Copies of the play and radio script may be obtained from The Candlelight Guild, 19 West 44th street, New York 18,
