Mrs. M. M. Doran Greeted As Head Of Falls KC Unit

Seneca Falls—Ladies Auxiliary of Seneca Falls Council, Knights of Columbus, held their annual banquet Wednesday, Jan. 9, in The Armitage.

Miss Julia O'Brien, as toastmistress, introduced the newly elected president, Mrs. Marie M. Doran, who welcomed guests and members. At the close of her talk, Mrs. Doran presented to Mrs. Anne Moreland, the retiring president, a gift of jewelry, as a token of appreciation of her work for the Auxiliary during the past year.

The entertainment program consisted of a saxophone solo by Robert Branciforte and Donald D'edita and a Tap Dance by Gary Tardelli, Mrs. John C. Fraser accompanied the boys on the piano and played during the evening.

PRINCIPAL SPEAKER of the evening was Rev. Emmett Halloran, of Newark. Father Halloran spent a year in St. Patrick's Parish, as assistant to Rev. John P. O'Beirne, pastor, just previous to his assignment in Newark.

In addition to the President, Mrs. Doran, the other officers are: Mrs. Emily Giglio, vice-president; Miss Teresa McGrain, Treasurer; Mrs. Julia Burns, Financial Secretary; Mrs. Alice Fay, Recording Secretary; Trustees: Mrs. Beatrice Eno, Mrs. Anne Moreland and Mrs. Catherine Frederburgh. Mrs. Mary Carrisimi is publicity chairman and Mrs. Nona Ryck is Activity Chairman.

Plans are under way at present for a large Card Party during February.

DeSales Club To Review Books Servicemen's Needs Told Catholic Action League

Geneva—Magazines now in DeSales High School Library were reviewed by members of the Library Club at its first meeting of the year Jan. 15.

At the next meeting, each member will be responsible for a short summary of a book given them at the January meeting.

Mary Ann Handlan, club president, introduced Elizabeth Stapleton as January meeting chairman.

Presenting reviews and the magazines discussed were: Edward Guard, "Air Trails," "Sign," "Catholic Boy," Barbara Reo, "Senior Scholastic," "American Girl," Catherine McCann, "America," "Reader's Digest," "Saturday Review," John Gugley, "Today," "Popular Science," and "Popular Mechanics."

Martha Sullivan, "Better Homes and Gardens," "Integrity," and "Catholic World"; Donald Ninette, "Newweek," "Current Biography," Nancy Talbert, "School Review," "Catholic Digest," and "Saturday Evening Post"; Peter Arthur, "National Geographic Magazine," "Atlantic," "Flying," Emmett Bolger, "Plays," "Current History," and "Library Journal," and Mary Ann Handlan, "Seventeen," "Catholic Girl."

The session closed after club members had made out cards for new books received in the library.

Nazareth Alumnae Set Auburn Meeting Auburn—Nazareth College Alumnae Association met Tuesday, Jan. 25, at the home of Mrs. John Hohman with Mrs. John Welch as co-hostess.

Several items of club business were transacted during the business meeting, which was followed by a social hour. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Mary Lesch with Miss Betty Turner as co-hostess.

"I HAD TIME on my hands," said Mr. Murray, referring to his enforced rest. "So I decided to use my right arm for painting. It's been a hobby of mine ever since I can remember."

Mr. Murray was with the 17th Airborne division in World War II in the European theatre. Upon his return, he went to Interlaken where he operated a foundry for about five years. He is now conducting his own sign works in Geneva.

St. Charles Youth Book Snow Party Feature event of the meeting of St. Charles Youth Club was the showing of Kodachrome slides of recent club activities. Final rounds of the ping-pong tournament were also played under the direction of Don Grolemond, Bob Hatzel, and Don Dohr. Final plans were made for the Youth Club Snow party to be held at Mendon Ponds Friday, Jan. 25. Joan Staub is chairman.

Report of the club's Baby Slinging Bureau was made. It was explained that the bureau is solely for the convenience of members of St. Charles Rosary Society in connection with their meetings and other Church sponsored activities.

Mercy Mothers Seek Chapel Fund Mrs. Mark Ehlers, president of Our Lady of Mercy High School Mothers' Club, has announced a campaign to raise funds to make specified improvements in the school oratory.

The campaign which opened on Jan. 17 will close on Feb. 27. Each member has been urged by letter to participate. Card parties in homes of members have been suggested with details outlined in the letters.

Geneva Church Water Color By Artist With Broken Arm

Geneva—A broken arm may have taken John A. Murray out of circulation for a while, but it didn't keep him away from his paint box.

A water color of St. Stephen's church, now on exhibit in Fairfax Bros. store on Castle St., was done while Mr. Murray was disabled by a broken left arm from July 6 to Nov. 2.

MR. MURRAY lives at 241 William St. He says he's been painting "ever since I can remember."

He has done water colors, quite a few oils, including still life, portrait work, and landscapes. He isn't too keen about portrait work, but as he says, "Anything that happens to strike my fancy, I take a crack at it."

The water color of St. Stephen's church was brought to Fairfax Bros. for framing. Because of its strong local interest it was placed on display. It is a sharp and forceful bit of work with brilliant color.

Trinity Alumnae To Make Retreat Plans Mrs. William Tracy will be hostess when Rochester Alumnae of Trinity College meets in her home, 157 Albemarle Street Wednesday, Jan. 23.

Arrangements for participation in the college alumnae retreat Feb. 22 at the Cenacle Convent will be discussed.

Officers of the alumnae group include Mrs. Donald Scodiffi, president; Mrs. Henry Sanford, vice-president; Mrs. Leo Callahan, secretary; and Mrs. Tracy, treasurer.

Spaghetti Supper Set At St. Monica's St. Monica's Holy Name and Rosary Societies will sponsor a spaghetti supper in the church hall Tuesday, Feb. 19. Tickets are now on sale from both societies. Ticket sales are limited to 500.

Supper will be served from 5:30 p. m. to 7:30 p. m. A social evening will follow.

Encourage Others To Pray For Peace

Chairman of the Retreat Committee, Miss Catherine E. Ryan, told the women that details of the council-sponsored Day of Recollection will be announced soon. Meeting was opened and closed with prayers led by Father Hickey.

Mrs. Bernard Vall will act as February meeting chairman.

DCCW Told of Guadalupe Influence On Mexico Life

Auburn—The Virgin of Guadalupe plays a part in Mexican culture as well as in religion, Miss Sylvia Antonacci, East High School teacher told Auburn Diocesan Council, Diocesan Council of Catholic Women here.

"Our Lady of Guadalupe" was the subject of the talk. Miss Antonacci prefaced her description of her visit to the famous Mexican shrine with a short exposition of the history of Mexico.

Showing of the Mexican slides originally planned for the January meeting will be made at the February council meeting.

THE REV. KIEBAN J. Hickey, O. Carm., moderator, told the members of the role of the National Council of Catholic Women in the larger organization of the National Catholic Welfare Conference. He stressed the consistent anti-Communist record of the organization and of the Catholic Church as a whole.

Mrs. C. Eugenie Carpenter, council president, conducted the business session at which reports were made of various activities by Mrs. Floyd C. Abrams, Mrs. John F. Foster, Mrs. George A. Snyder, Mrs. Edward T. Boyle, all of Auburn, and Mrs. Paul Dougherty of Scipio Center.

Miss Mary F. Dunn reminded the women of the importance of Catholic Press month observed throughout the nation in February and listed reasons for the need of an intelligent reading public.

Chairman of the Retreat Committee, Miss Catherine E. Ryan, told the women that details of the council-sponsored Day of Recollection will be announced soon. Meeting was opened and closed with prayers led by Father Hickey.
