

Apostolic Blessing Sent To Catholic Kolping Society

Word that the Holy Father had imparted his Apostolic Blessing on the national Catholic Kolping Society of America was brought to the Rochester branch of the society meeting at the Notre Dame Retreat House to elect officers.

The message of Pope Pius XII came in answer to a message sent by the Kolping Society in their 10th North American Kolping Society Convention held in Rochester last year.

THE POPE'S message said in part: "At a time when His paternal heart is weighted down by so many sorrows and anxieties, it was a source of comfort and encouragement for His Holiness to receive this reassurance of that filial devotion and attachment which have always characterized the Catholic Kolping Society of America."

Very Rev. Augustine J. Aylward, C.S.S.R. is Praeses of the Rochester group and Leo Saum was elected Senior.

Others named for 1952 are: William Witzmann, vice praeses; Otto Baucke, vice senior; William Roeder, treasurer; Ludwig Dietrich, financial secretary; Edward Mies, corresponding secretary; and Charles Faust, recording secretary.

THE SOCIETY will hold a Fastnacht party Feb. 23 at Krezdorff's Restaurant, 2 Oakman St. Program will include dancing, entertainment and Fastnachtstueche. Friends of the members especially young people are invited.

A Carra Conference will be conducted by Father Aylward on the First Sunday in Lent, March 2 at 8 p.m. at the Notre Dame Retreat House.

Africa Church In Charge of Fr. Erb

A new church, the ninth place where Mass is offered every Sunday in Accra, Gold Coast, Africa, is in charge of the Rev. Charles G. Erb, S.V.D., diocesan coordinator of Catholic Action activities, a native of Rochester.

The new church, named for Christ the King, was dedicated and officially opened by Bishop Adolph A. Noser, S.V.D., of Accra.

Europeans and Africans attending the first service were pleased to see an English and an African boy acting as Mass servers according to NCWC News Service. Minister of Justice Patrick Brangan also has served at Mass.

A dozen years ago there was but one church for Catholics of Accra. Building of a proposed cathedral to be dedicated to the Holy Spirit will begin shortly.
