Observance of Boy Scout Sunday, Feb. 10, and a Scouters' Rally on Sunday, March 2, at 1 p. m. in Columbus Civic Center are outstanding on the Bishop's Lay Committee on Scouting program to commemorate the project's 42nd anniversary.

Announcement of the events for Scouts, Cubs, Explorers, Scout leaders and committeemen was made by the Rev. Donald J. Mulchay, diocesan director of Scouting, Diocesan Chairman Richard J. Toole and Oteliana Council Chairman James L. Coyne, all supervising the program.

FEATURING THE Scouters' Rally, March 2, will be the conferring of the Pelican Award. This award is made to outstanding scouters who, most nearly exemplify service and interest in preserving youth and character.

Chosen from Church symbolism, the Pelican award represents Christ shedding his blood for His flock. It is considered particularly significant and representative of the contribution made by those elected because of their outstanding and unselfish service for young boys.

Bishop Kearney was the first recipient of this award last year, and will be the principal speaker at the coming rally.

Clarence W. Deckman, general chairman, urges all Scouters to attend with members of the families and friends. Emphasis in the program will be placed on unit leaders who work toward the Lay Committee's goal, a pack, a troop and a post in almost every parish in the Diocese of Rochester.

FOURTEEN CATHOLIC Scout troops and packs will feature the Scout Sunday observance Feb. 10 at St. John the Evangelist's Church, Rochester. The units have been invited by Troop 37 and co-chairmen Edgar E. Talmage and Dr. A. L. Benedict.

Breakfast at Mass and recitation of the Holy Communion in a body at the church on Humboldt Street.

A breakfast for the boys will follow in St. John's Auditorium with members of the Mothers' Auxiliary, Mrs. A. L. Benedict, president, in charge. At least 200 are expected.

Supervising this project are Rev. Walter Fleming, chaplain; troop committee chairman, Donald J. Corbett and scoutmaster, Louis A. Langie Jr. of Troop 37.

Reporting on plans for the day are the following: St. Monica's Church Troop 246 and Cub Pack members, Corporate Communion and Holy Communion Breakfast, Rev. Patrick J. Grace, chaplain; Chairman James Flynn and Scoutmaster George Thorne are supervising. Former Scoutmaster Edward M. Lorscheider will assist.

At Corpus Christi Church, Troop 184 will have a Communion Breakfast. Guided by the Rev. Lawrence B. Ward, chaplain; Troop Committee Chairman Norman MacMillan and EA Robert Heffer, plans are being made for a record turnout.

PLANNING TO attend Mass in a uniformed body are members of Troop 133 of St. Jerome's Church, East Rochester, where the Rev. Anthony F. Callmeri, chaplain, is directing activities aided by Charles Kearns, Chairman.

Sampson Priest Keeps Promise Made In Japan

A promise made by a chaplain in Japan and fulfilled in upstate New York has resulted in a $500 contribution by Air Force personnel for erection of a million-dollar school and community center in Harlem, according to the NCWC News Service.

The Rev. (Maj.) Albert C. Steffens, now at Sampson Air Force Base, N. Y., made a special trip to Harlem to deliver a $500 check to the St. Charles School and Community Center Fund. He raised that amount at Sampson to keep a promise he had made several months ago while serving in Japan.

(Father Steffens was the speaker at the First Friday Luncheon Club meeting in Rochester, Friday at Hotel Sheraton.)

It was in Tokyo Father Steffens first heard that Msgr. Cornelius J. Drew was planning the new Harlem school and community center. Having once been assigned to a Harlem church, the chaplain had firsthand knowledge of the area's needs for educational and recreational facilities. He knew, too, of the efforts of subversive groups to capitalize on the community's plight.

REALIZING THAT his personal contribution would only be a drop in the bucket, Father Steffens promised himself he would find a way to help the Harlem parish in more substantial fashion. But within a few hours after making the promise he received orders to leave for the United States.

Soon after getting settled at Sampson — 6,800 miles from Tokyo — he told the airman about the project. They quickly gave $500.

A native New Yorker, Father Steffens was stationed 41 months in Japan since World War II. During the war he served through the entire North African and Italian campaigns, and was awarded the Silver Star and the Croix de Guerre.

Catholic nurses will attend a monthly retreat on Monday, Feb. 11, in St. Agnes' School Chapel, East Main St. near Prince Street, beginning at 7:45 p. m. according to the Rev. Charles B. Connel, moderator of the Catholic Nurses Council.

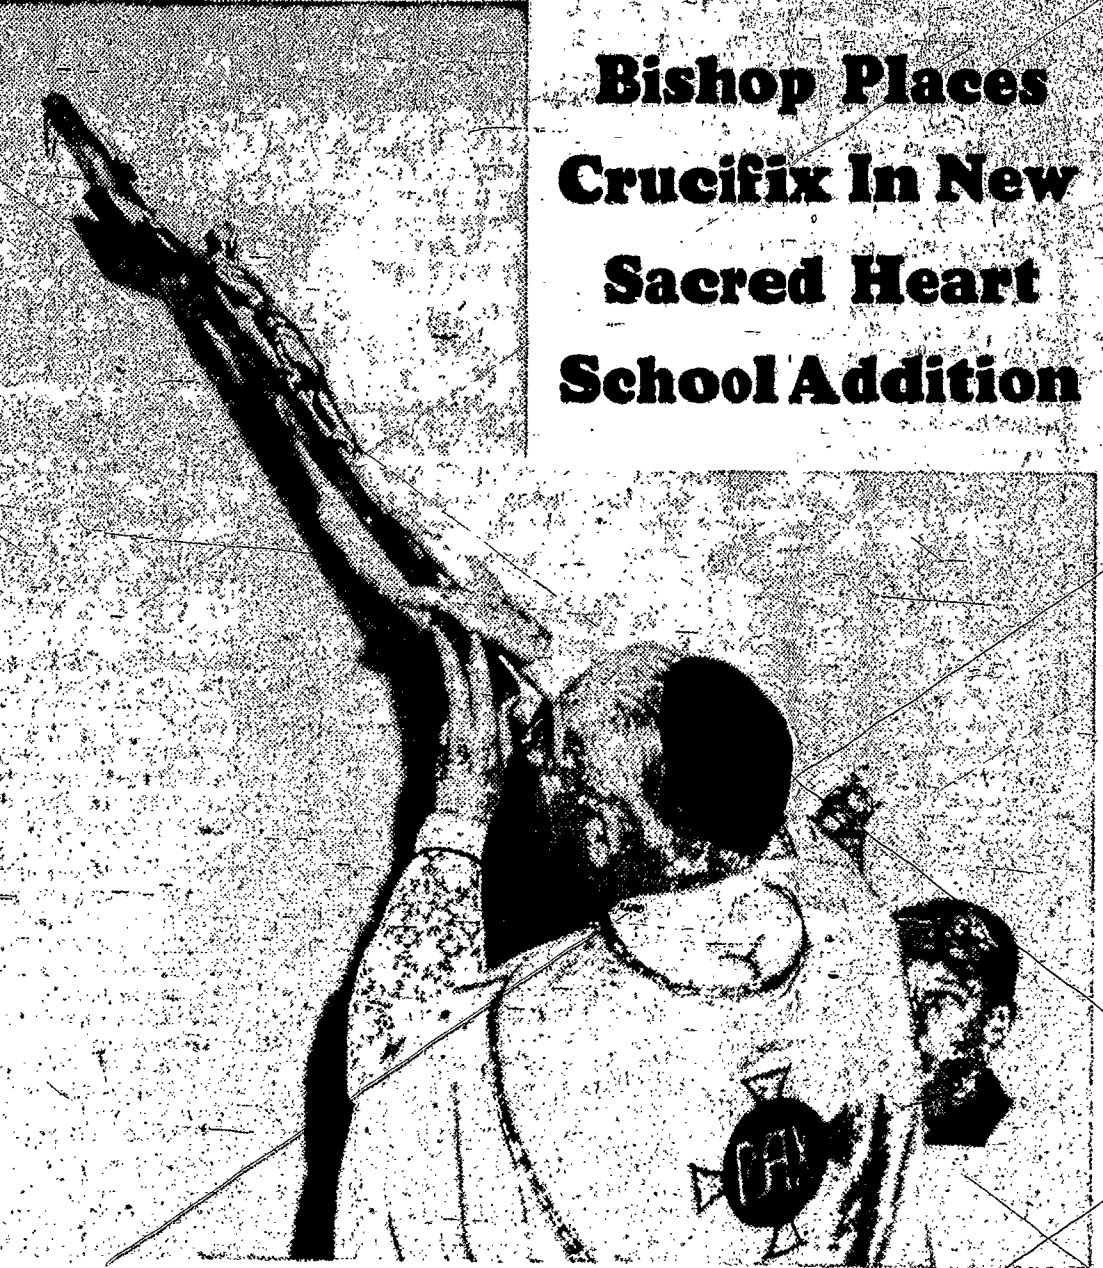

The Rev. Charles Bennett, assistant pastor of St. Patrick's, Rochester, will conduct the meditations.

Bishop Places Crucifix In New Sacred Heart School Addition

THE CRUCIFIX, symbol of Christian teaching, the basis of the parochial school system, is placed by His Excellency Bishop Kearney on the wall of the entrance to Sacred Heart Pro-Cathedral School's new addition. Ceremony took place Sunday afternoon.

'Patriotic' To Pay Double School Taxes Says Bishop

Erecting and maintaining parochial schools is a much more patriotic contribution to the community than that made by those who criticize those schools.

This was the declaration of His Excellency Bishop Kearney following blessing and dedication of the new wing of Sacred Heart Pro-Cathedral School, Sunday afternoon.

The Bishop offered "sincere congratulations to priests, sisters and parishioners" on a work which could not "have been done without your personal interest" in a talk following the ceremony in the new assembly hall.

THE LITURGY of blessing was explained by Bishop Kearney to the audience which included Sisters of St. Joseph who teach in the school.

"Parents," the Bishop said, "can have a sense of real confidence in sending their children to a school which has the blessing of Jesus Christ."

"You show magnificent patriotism," he said. "With your right hand, you pay taxes to support the public schools. And with your left hand, you pay taxes to maintain our schools."

"At no time has your generosity for our parochial schools interferred with your generosity for the public schools. You willingly suffer the double burden

Book Report Listed For IFCA Members

Mrs. Doyle will give a book report at the meeting of the International Federation of Catholic Alumnae Monday, Feb. 11, according to Rita Trost, regent of the Rochester circle.

Mrs. Doyle will discuss the Baroness Catherine de Hueck's book "My Russian Yesterdays." The meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Frank M. Richardson, 187 Culver Rd., Rochester.

Mrs. James Fahy, program chairman, is in charge of arrangements. Mrs. Roy Burns (Culver 2551) is handling reservations and Mrs. John Fitzgerald is refreshment chairman.

Non-Catholics Invited To Inquiry Classes To Open At Holy Rosary Hall

Monroe Holy Name Men To Meet At St. Stanislaus

Men representing parish Holy Name societies throughout Monroe County will gather at St. Stanislaus Church, 1124 Hudson Ave., Rochester on Sunday, Feb. 17. They will be attending the Annual Winter Meeting of the Rochester Deanery Holy Name Union.

Election of officers will be the principal business at the session. The meeting will open with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 3 p. m. in St. Stanislaus Church.

TWO SPEAKERS are scheduled at the business meeting in the St. Stanislaus Auditorium after church services.

The Rev. Edward Molloy, C.S.S.R., of the Notre Dame Retreat House, will discuss "Com-

A series of instructions on the Catholic religion to be known as Inquiry or Catholic Information Classes will open in Holy Rosary School Hall Monday, Feb. 18 according to the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles F. Shay, pastor.

To be conducted by priests of Holy Rosary Parish, the classes will be conducted on Monday and Thursday evenings beginning at 7:30 p. m. The talks will be concluded each night of the series at 8:15 p. m. and 15 minutes will be allotted to answering questions from the floor.

OBJECT OF these meetings is to offer an opportunity to tell what Catholics believe and why they so believe. Catholics are asked to bring their non-Catholic friends or any Catholic in the vicinity of Holy Rosary Church who knows of a non-Catholic seeking information may give the name in at the rectory and announcement will be sent by mail.

No obligation is entailed and there will be no charges or fees. Priests planning the classes are the Rev. Paul G. Wohlrab, the Rev. Elmer McDonald and the Rev. James E. Marvin.

The classes are especially for non-Catholics, the announcement said. Non-Catholics are told by attending these talks they are not making any commitments on joining the church. The series is an "Inquiry" class, not a "Conversion" class.

QUESTIONS MAY be submitted from the floor or through the Question Box.

Instructions necessary for a non-Catholic contemplating marriage with a Catholic can be fulfilled by attending these classes. Keynote of the series is "Tolerance" respect, charity for other religious opinions will be the predominant note of the lectures. We realize every one must follow his conscience.

Further information may be had by calling Holy Rosary Rectory, Glenwood 6535.
