38 Employees Of St. Joseph's Hospital Rewarded With Pins For Long Service

Thirty-eight employes of St. Joseph's Hospital, Elmira, were awarded service pins last week in the nurse's residence and were guests of the Sisters of St. Joseph at a "Coffee Hour" following the presentation by Sister Margaret Adelaide, hospital administrator.

Sister Margaret Adelaide in recognizing the faithful services of this group, said: "To be present at this little gathering here tonight is one of the more pleasant assignments that fill the course of my hospital day. It is both a sincere and real pleasure for me to tell each one of you how deeply I appreciate your splendid and long service."

"IT IS GOOD that you have been drawn away from your busy day-by-day activities to join us at this Coffee Hour. What a wonderful opportunity for me to thank you for faithful service."

Twenty, ten, five or more years ago each of you undertook with some apprehension a new venture. You became employes at St. Joseph's Hospital. You have brought with you special skills and talents from which we feel that we have indeed benefited.

"You seemed from the first to realize that your work and service combined with our facilities were to be expended for the patient's comfort and that the last work in effectiveness was dependent upon your cooperation, interest, generosity, and loyalty to us."

"TONIGHT we are recognizing and acknowledging publicly your contributions. However, we have not been unmindful of these through the years. We solicit your continued support. We realize that without it the fulfillment of our tremendous task here at the hospital is quite impossible, and so our whole-hearted prayer and wish is that God may grant you many more happy years with us."

"As administrator of the hospital and in the name of the Sisters, I extend to you sincere congratulations, and I want you to know that it makes me very

- happy to present service pins to you."
- Workers receiving pins were the following:
- TWENTY-YEAR PIN: James Kirwan, dietary and Catherine Margrett, housekeeping.
