The measure of your love of God is what you are willing to give up for His sake. . . 49 Chinese boys, candidates for the priesthood in the Anhwei Province, are being starved to get them to accuse the foreign missionaries. They have all refused. Would you sacrifice one meal to join your hunger to those who suffer so boldly for Christ's sake. . . Father Sou in that province has been in chains for a year; he will not be released until he admits the false charge of burning a granary. This he refused to do. . . . In Fooshow the Communists called a meeting of the hospital staff to accuse the Sisters of "crimes," The Communists could find no one to accuse the nuns. They have since taken over the hospital after having expelled the Slaters. . . These persecutions should make us think of the words of St. Peter: "If the just man wins salvation only with difficulty, what will be the plight of the godiess, of the sinner." . . . These martyrs are saved, for they are bearing witness to their faith with their lives after being faisely accused-like Our Lord before Pliate. If salvation is hard, what are you doing to secure it? Perhaps a few sacrifices for the Moly Father's Missions to convert souls would redeem your

Our Lord never worked a miracle except through His human nature which He took from Mary. Our Lord does not spread His faith today except through you and me whom he takes from Mother Church. The Holy Father, the Vicar of Christ, needs each of us to fill up the mission of Christ, in His Body, the Church. Tear this out, pin your sacrifice to it and mail to the Most Reverend Fulton J.
