

First Dancing Class Party Scheduled At Nazareth Hall

A social dancing class held at Nazareth Hall will have its first party on Washington's Birthday, Feb. 22.

In answer to a request for such an extra curricular activity, the Mothers' Club of Nazareth Hall with Mrs. Arthur Gibson as chairman, is sponsoring this series.

These classes are designed to teach not only the technique and rhythms of ballroom dancing but afford an opportunity for young Catholic boys and girls to meet socially and be tutored in polite posture and social manners.

Jack McDonnell, of the Esquire-McDonnell School, is teacher and director of the classes. Mr. McDonnell has acquired a fine reputation in the teaching of dancing to thousands of school age boys and girls, the Mothers' Club spokesman said.

The class is held every Wednesday evening at Nazareth Hall from 7:15 to 8:15 p.m. with the boys of the school acting as hosts to the girls from Sacred Heart Academy and St. Agnes Grammar School.

Holy Family Group Sets Valentine Fete

A Valentine party has been planned by Mrs. John Egan, hostess for the evening. Refreshments will be served.

Assisting are the Mesdames A. Bierschmidt, Edward Denstedt, William Evans, Gerard Feas, Louis Goff, Andrew Hagler, William J. Koeselberg, Edward A. Long, George Mathes, Norman Shennan, Patrick Tette, Rodolph Toth, John Wagner, Joseph Weissen, Albert Young and the Mesdames Louise Manning, Mary Robert and Marie Steger.

Rummage Sale Listed By OLPH Cub Pack

Cub Pack of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church will hold a rummage sale Feb. 14 and 15 at 1286 Clinton Ave. North.

Pot Luck Supper Set By Cub Pack

Eleventh Annual Blue and Gold Pot Luck Supper of Pack 70, sponsored by St. Andrew's Church, 923 Portland Avenue, will be held Feb. 14 in St. Stanislaus School Hall at 1150 Norton Street.

Each Cub in Pack 70 is invited with his family to bring a hot covered dish of food or some other food item.

Dennis Andrew Meritt, Cubmaster, is in charge of the program, assisted by Connie Marinova, social chairman, and Grace Ehrstein, the Pack Mother.

Carl Trovato, the awards man, has arranged a program of awards for the Cubs who have passed their Achievements and to the adult leaders who have completed their full year service to Pack 70.

The registered Den Mothers have been invited to act as hostesses to the Cubs' families, now numbering over 100. Cubs' parents are also working with the committees to help serve the Pot Luck Supper.

Honored guests have been invited from the sponsoring institution and from the Otiiana Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

At part of the Scout Week celebration Pack 70 now has on display projects made by the Cubs in the Pack. They are located in the Cadet Cleaners and Eberts Bakery windows on Portland Avenue, opposite the school.

Equality

All men are by nature equal made all of the same earth by the same Creator, and however we describe ourselves, as dear to God is the poor peasant as the mighty prince.—Plato.

Catholics Must Read Bible Says Father Gregory

Coming — Speaking before members and guests of Court St. Joseph, Catholic Daughters of America, at the annual Book Tea Sunday afternoon, the Rev. Gregory Borgstadt, sub-prior of Mt. Savior Monastery, Elmira, said that the Bible, as "God's book" heads the list for Catholic reading. He suggested methods of reading the Bible which would increase understanding of its contents.

Father Gregory, who served as headmaster of Portsmouth Priory at Portsmouth, R. I., before coming to Elmira, described life at Mt. Savior Monastery.

A SHORT TALK was given by Miss Mary McCabe, librarian at the Corning War Memorial Library, concerning books available there which are recommended reading for Catholics.

A feature of the afternoon was a book display which was arranged by Miss Madeline Stenger.

Mrs. James Ward, grand regent, and Mrs. Edith Griffin, past grand regent, presided at the tea table. Mrs. James Green and Mrs. William Mack were co-chairmen for the tea.
