Teachers Seen Needing TV Methods To Hold Attention

Washington —(NC)— Today's teachers are finding they must copy television methods to hold their pupils' attention, according to a survey reported in the National Catholic Educational Association Bulletin here.

This development in education was brought to light by Brother Paul A. Sibbing, who sent questionnaires on school discipline to primary and secondary schools in the Midwest and Middle Atlantic States.

"About 66 per cent of those questioned agreed that the problem of discipline was complicated more or less by the loss of the powers of concentration and abstraction resulting from the distracting influence of TV, movies, picture magazines, and comics," Brother Paul reported.

"THE CHILD in the elementary classes seems to be more influenced by these media, and expects the teacher to put on a show. If the latter cannot bring in references to TV or comic book characters or heroes, the interest of the pupils in the work at hand suffers. They tend to be sleepy in class, because of late hours; and lazy, because grammar and arithmetic are so much harder than looking at pictures or shows."

One questionnaire reply said that "on the secondary level, there is a decided absence of ability to concentrate, analyze, and work neatly and rapidly; and teachers who insist on these normal concomitants of the learning process run into disciplinary difficulties." Another reported that pupils tend to be restless because they prefer "flash presentation" and "smart repartee."

Nevertheless, Brother Paul, inspector of schools for the Marist Cincinnati Province, found those who thought discipline a more difficult problem now than it was before World War II almost balanced by educators who thought it was not. There was a unanimous response that parents and the home are the most important factors affecting the conduct of pupils in school.

LEAVING FOR EUROPE TO HELP STARVING CHILDREN

On my return, I will give you a personal report of my findings that will interest and thrill you. Now before I go please heed this S.O.S. for help. DO NOT FAIL . . . you are my only hope in this crusade to feed and clothe these little ones of our Lord in war torn Europe and Asia. My mission includes children who are displaced, homeless or destitute in weary desolate lands.

Daily letters of tragic appeal come to me from priests, nuns and archbishops telling of the unbelievable need of the poor in their flocks for food and clothing. Please . . . please help with prayers and gifts in this unselfish campaign to save children such as Jesus drew about His knees on earth. Remember what He said, "So long as you did it for one of these . . . you did it for Me."

Hear this plea on behalf of His agonizing children, homeless, sick and hungry. Make your contribution today. Jesus will richly reward you.

SEND ME YOUR PETITIONS

In the very near future, I am going to Europe to see with my own eyes the plight of these poor people. The course of my journey will take me to Fatima, to Spain and Italy. Masses and prayers will be offered at the tomb of St. Anthony Mary Claret, patron for the cure of cancer and other seemingly incurable diseases.

Let me be your messenger of cheer and blessing. Send your gifts and intentions. I promise to all of you, my benefactors, that I will put your petitions and names in a prominent place at the tomb shrine of this great saint. Mail them to me at once so that I may take them personally. To one and all who help in this worthy mission, I give my grateful thanks.

FREE

To all those mailing a donation for God's poor, I will send a beautiful colored picture of St. Anthony Mary Claret with a prayer for the cure of cancer and other seemingly incurable diseases. Write today.

It was with a note of regret that this writer witnessed the performance of a once brilliant ballet company when the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo appeared on the Rochester RKO Palace stage recently. A company that set the standard throughout the world has been reduced to a shadow of its former self and were it not for the excellence of Fredric Franklin (from the Ballet Russe of pre-war days) and Nina Novak, the evening would have been time wasted. The "Ballet Imperial" executed like an endurance test by the group was a sorry sight.

"Quo Vadis" the film which smashed all boxoffice records at Loew's Rochester Theater recently, was supported and praised by religious groups according to Lester Pollock, manager. "No matter what they say in Hollywood, sex isn't the most important element in a picture," Pollock said. Current film offering at Loew's is "Boots Malone" (A-2) and "Indian Uprising" (A-1).

Fr. Hickey To Address First Saturday Club

First Saturday luncheon will be held on Mar. 1 in the Powers Hotel Ballroom at 12:15 p. m. The new price for the luncheon will be $1.50.

The guest speaker is the Rev. Kieran Hickey, Order of the Carmelites of Auburn, N. Y. He is also the moderator for the First Saturday Luncheon Group of Auburn, N. Y.

Father Hickey will speak on Meditation, a subject which should prove of great value and interest for the Lenten Season.

All Catholic women are invited to attend, the only requirements being to attend Mass, receive Holy Communion on that day. The luncheon is sponsored by the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women. Moderator is the Rev. Albert J. Shamon.

All reservations must be in by Feb. 27. Please address cards to First Saturday Luncheon Group, 30 Nicholson St., Rochester 20, N. Y.

Society Hears Of 'Spirit of Prayer'

Auburn—Rev. Clarence Gardner, spiritual advisor, was heard by members of the Immaculate Heart of Mary and Rosary Society of St. Alphonsus Church speaking on "The Spirit of Prayer" at their meeting Feb. 18 in the school hall.

Among reports heard was one on the membership drive now underway. Each member is asked to bring a new member to the next meeting and reception in April. Mrs. Raymond Lewis Sr., chairman of Shrines in the Homes, reported.

Mrs. Karl Koenen, chairman of the Spiritual Development Program, spoke on the "writings of Abraham Lincoln, his feeling of dedication which gave evidence of responsibility to the American people, and his final accounting to God."

Attendance honor went to Mrs. Anthony Ciolli. The meeting closed with prayer. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Mary Funke, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Gertrude Ehresman.
