Store Sets Women's Day

While the male executives graciously step down and hand the keys of the store to the women for this great, annual day of savings, the women with confident air, will open the doors at 9:30 on Saturday, to a bigger-than-last-year, Edwards Women's Day!

This is leap year's extra day of Extra Value and, according to Margaret Merkel, general manager for Women's Day, the women have gone all out to prove that "anything men can do, women can do better."

"These pretty sleuths have been at work for months, begging and pleading with the county's leading manufacturers for "knock-off" prices and special wanted items for yourself, your home, your family. Every item has been scanned by the women's merchandise division, and stamped a bonafide, guaranteed saving," the store announced.

"Shoppers on Women's Day will see savings jumping before their eyes. If you're planning to save your budget for months to come, the time to do it will be Saturday, Feb. 23, at Edwards on Women's Day.
