

Holy Cross Fathers To Give Mercy High School Retreat

Two Holy Cross Fathers, Rev. Frank E. Gartland and Rev. James V. Lowery, are scheduled to give the students and retreat at Our Lady of Mercy High School next week.

The three-day retreat program will begin Ash Wednesday and terminate Friday afternoon. Father Gartland, editor of the "Catholic Boy" and former professor at Notre Dame University, will conduct the seniors and juniors retreat.

Father Lowery, member of the Mission band in the New England states and High School Retreat Master for many years, has been booked for the sophomore and freshman program. Each day's program will open with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and close with Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Fr. Cuddy Completes Chaplain Course

Chaplain (Major) Paul J. Cuddy, USAF, who until recently was Spiritual Director of St. Andrew's Seminary, Rochester, was one of a graduating class of 27 Army and Air Force chaplains to finish a five-week orientation course at the Chaplain School in Fort Slocum Wednesday, Feb. 13.

The graduation address was given by Chaplain (Major) Delvin E. Ressel, Assistant Chief of Personnel Section, Office of the Chief of Air Force Chaplains. In his farewell remarks to the class, Chaplain (Colonel) Joseph R. Koch, Commandant of the Chaplain School and also a native of Rochester admonished the graduates to remember that their primary mission in the military service was, as clergymen of their respective faiths, to bring God to men and men to God.

Mardi Gras Dancing Party Scheduled At Immaculate

A gala Mardi Gras dancing party will be held in the Immaculate Auditorium Tuesday, Feb. 26. At this time the curtain will come down on the year of youth dances. The Immaculate closes for the season of Lent.

The only dance held during that time is on St. Patrick's Day Monday, Mar. 17. Dances are resumed on Easter Monday and will continue every Friday thereafter.

THE PRE-LENTEN party will be an "old clothes" dance, allowing the young people to wear dungarees and informal attire. The orchestras of Joe Nolan and Johnny Matt will play for continuous dancing from 8:30 until midnight. When two bands are engaged for an evening of dancing there is no "intermission." Each orchestra plays for an interval of forty-five minutes.

Betty Cola of Nazareth Academy is the featured vocalist with the Nolan aggregation. Mr. Howard Palmer and John E. Drew are co-chairmen of the party. They will head a list of chaperones consisting of Mary Kinnerney, Muriel Sherman, Margaret Jerzak, Geraldine McErlain, Alice Smith, Louise Woodard, Arlene Feeley, Theresa Davis, Patricia Degan, Beverly Kios, Helen Schwind and Amarys Slater. Also John F. Wood, Paul Schmidt, Leo Degan, Edward Maloney, William Doolin, William Fischer and Duane Hagan.

THE CHECKING and the refreshments will be supervised by Mary Maguire, Joan Merkel, Elaine Calmeo, Rose Ann Bawinski, Joan Kios, Louise Tomczak, Lisa Crevier, Patricia McCarthy, Kay McCarthy, Shirley Sweetland and Arlene Hunter. Teens and young adults are welcome to attend these Immaculate dancing parties. Tickets may be obtained at the Edinburgh Street entrance. Price of admission is 75 cents.

Variety Show To Be Staged By St. Ambrose Youth Club

"Belle of the West," a musical dealing with the experiences of a small town, will be staged by St. Ambrose Youth Club in St. Ambrose Hall, Monday and Tuesday evenings, Feb. 25 and 26, at 8:15 p. m.

A LARGE CAST of boys and girls will appear in the play and in the chorus rounding out a musical. Acts have been woven into the plot and a well-trained quartette, tap dancer and other specialists will be presented.

William McCarthy of Aquinas Institute faculty and the Rev. Roy Hagerty, moderator of the group, are directing the show. Richard Vople, an Eastman School of Music student, will handle musical arrangements. Miss Leona Johnson will handle the leading female role as Miss Ida Mae Brown. Daniel Roberts will take the leading male role as "Speedy Summers, the head of the Hotel and Barber Shop."

Tickets are $5.00 and may be purchased at the door. The Clifford bus goes to the hall. This is the fourth production for this group and members report large numbers have witnessed the show in the past.

Dansville KC Women Welcome 3 Members

Dansville—Miss Marjorie Hanson reported on the National Council of Catholic Women meeting held in Hornell in January at the Dansville K. of C. Auxiliary meeting Feb. 11.

Mrs. Ella Blum, chairman of the Program Committee, outlined program plans for the coming year. Showing of a film "The Triumphant Hour" is planned for the March meeting.

Three new members, Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, Miss Julia Kiebel and Miss Louise Kiebel, were presented and accepted.

Following the business meeting, a delicious dessert luncheon was served by the committee, headed by Mrs. Jack McCovick. Cards were enjoyed and prizes awarded as follows: Bridge, Mrs. Catherine Young and Canasta, Miss Julia Kiebel.
