The Rochester Diocesan Holy Name Union will present their annual play during Passion Week. This year's presentation will be "The Dry Martyr." Again Wilford Scott will direct and the play will run for eight nights on the stage of the Aquinas Institute Auditorium. Curtain time is set for 8:30 p. m. on the evenings of March 29, 30, April 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6.

"Pygmalion," the stage story of an English professor who turns a little flower girl into an English socialite, opened at the

Lionel Barrymore — Ann Dearing — George La Buda — Hummingbird

Arena Theater, Hoeltzer St., Rochester, Tuesday. Ann Dearing, who played with the group in the past, returns to star in this George Bernard Shaw vehicle. Others in the cast include John Vaughan, George LaBuda, Sarah Scott, Edward Ivory and Alice Boyle.

In the final of his four February radio talks under the general title, "The Bible Our Compass," the Rev. Isadore O'Brien will speak on the Sermon of the Cross Sunday over Station WARC, Rochester, at 1:30 p. m. The choir of the Theological College of the Catholic University of America, under the baton of William C. Tate, has been a feature of the program.

For the first time in history a full-blooded American Indian appeared as the star on a television show recently. Called "Son of the Eagle," the program featured Hummingbird, a 17-year-old Indian. The boy received his elementary education from the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament in Santa Fe and was granted a private audience by the Holy Father during a Holy Year pilgrimage.

Coming to the Loew's Rochester Theater, the "Lone Star," rated A-1, is not a distinguished picture. Lionel Barrymore plays President Andrew Jackson aptly but Clark Gable will need better film material than this picture if he is to maintain his position among the stars.

For those who look for a movie filled with unrelieved tenseness the Cinema Theater, Rochester, will present "The Well." Rated A-2 by the Legion of Decency, the film is apt to attract the morbid type patron.

The Trapp Singers, world-famed a cappella choral group under the conductorship of the Very Rev. Msgr. Franz Wasner, have been selected by the National Catholic Welfare Conference for the honor of providing a musical introduction and postlude for the Annual Ash Wednesday message of the Holy Father to the American School Children. The Holy Father's Address will be carried on both CBS and NBC networks, on Wednesday, Feb. 27.

A variety show under the title, "Belle of the West," is having its final polishing before the St. Ambrose Youth Club, Rochester, presents the show Feb. 25 and 26 in the parish hall. William McCarthy of Aquinas Institute faculty and the Rev. Roy Hagerty, moderator of the club, are directing the show.

Mercy Thespians Present Comedy 'Junior Miss'

Thespians of Our Lady of Mercy High School present "Junior Miss" as their school play on Feb. 24 and 25.

Copping the leads in the production are Joan Ruby as Judy Graves, the typical teen-age miss, and Lucy Blackwood as Mrs. Graves, Judy's very attractive and understanding mother.

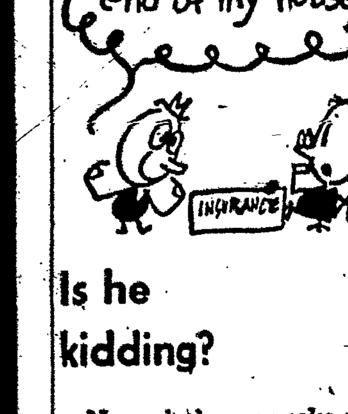
Portuguese Bishop Dies

Lisbon, Portugal — (NC) — Bishop Jose Alves Matoso of Guarda died here Feb. 10, less than three weeks before his 92nd birthday. In 1912, Bishop Matoso was exiled from Portugal under the first Republican regime for defending the Church against attacks by the Freemasons.



Is he kidding?

No, nobody ever asks us to insure only one end of his house against fire, windstorm, etc.

But, in effect, many people DO carry insurance on only a fraction of their property.

We mean, they carry only a percentage — perhaps 40% or 50% or 60% — of as much insurance as they should.

They insured their property when property was worth much less. Insurance should be carried not on original cost, but on present replacement costs, less depreciation. (This depreciation is normally very little for well maintained property.)

DIVISION I
Grades 4, 5, 6

First Place

IN KOREA

Beyond the ditch, the soldier lies,
A pilot shot from out the skies;
Across the fields, a farmer runs,
To help a friend shot down by guns;
The dying lad as far from home,
Turns up his face no more to roam,
Prays God to keep the farmer's land,
A place where love and freedom stand.

Claire Sullivan
Our Lady of Lourdes School

Second Place

OUR NATION'S GLORY

Our nation is very free,
We all have liberty.
Our nation's rivers and bays,
Are the world's great waterways.
Under the earth the miner's toil.
Above, the farmers work the soil.
In our nation we have the right,
To worship God just as we like.

Hans Grauert
Our Lady of Lourdes School

Third Place

OUR FLAG

The red, white and blue is the flag of the brave,
The Flag of the free,
Giving security,
For you and for me!
It always is waving,
So bright in the sky,
We want it to stay there
Forever to fly!

Mary Munch
Our Lady of Lourdes School

DIVISION II
Grades 7, 8, 9

First Place

THE PIONEERS

This very road they travelled
Many years ago
They fought the beasts and Indians
That were their dreaded foe,
Over hill and mountain
Onward to the West,
Seeking their freedom
With everlasting zest.
They toiled day and night
With little time for fun.
We owe to them our freedom
And thank them everyone!

Anna McGraw

Second Place

A SOLDIER IN KOREA

On Korean hillsides far away
Men fight and die day by day.
They fight to keep America free,
To build and strengthen democracy.
When a soldier kneels to pray,
He hears the gunshot far away.
To have it stopped, his prayers will be.
To have our land at peace and free.
He thinks of his friends across the blue.
One and all to him are true.
Oh, soldier! keep on fighting please,
To help unite the seven seas.

Patricia Strong
Our Lady of Lourdes School

Third Place

THE FLAG

As the parade goes marching by
A simple banner floats on high
And yet the people tip their hats
While bands play out their sharps and flats.
The people cry, the children cheer
"Old Glory's flying!; there's naught to fear!"
It guards freedom and our peace
It waves o'er free land ne'er to cease
Red, White and Blue, its symbols stand
For brave men, who, for our dear land
Have given lives so we could be
"Home of the Brave," "Land of the Free."

Marion Grauert
Our Lady of Lourdes School

First Place

CONESTOGA

Forward and forward, never back,
Groaning over the western track,
Spokes and hubs by iron rims bound,
Pressing their weight upon the ground.
The heavy wheels turn round and round.
Ship of the land, her great white sails
Seeking the West on unblazed trails.

Joanne Anderson
Our Lady of Mercy High

Second Place

HEARTBREAK RIDGE

My ears vibrate with the sound.
The earth is shaking!
I glance across the muddy ground;
Dawn is waking.
A sneering, bloody sun come out
That tells a tale
Of what a war is all about
And lights its trail.
The faces of those close to me
Are greased with mud
As I know mine must be;
Greased with mud; greased with blood!

Laura Holmes
Nazareth Academy

A SEARCHING QUESTION

Do you thank God for this land of yours,
That the air you breathe is free,
That no marching feet with measured tread
Disturbs your serenity?
Do you beg God for this land of yours
That She will ever be free,
That her shores will beckon an alien's haven—
A refuge of liberty?

St. Agnes High School
