

Honored By CWV As Outstanding

RECIPIENTS of honors as outstanding in the Catholic War Veterans... Mrs. Armand LeMay, president, presentation was made at annual Communion breakfast in Sheraton Hotel.

Catholic Veterans Urged To Lead Move Back To God

Warned of dangers threatening this nation, members of the Monroe County Chapter, Catholic War Veterans, and Ladies Auxiliary were called upon to be "leaders in the movement back to God."

More than 250 veterans, auxiliary members and guests heard the Rev. Matthew Tobin, C.S.S.R., of St. Joseph's Church review the perils from Red Communism and moral decay in the United States at a Communion breakfast in Hotel Sheraton, Sunday, March 2.

His Excellency Bishop Kearney celebrated the Mass at St. Joseph's Church prior to the breakfast, with the Monroe County drill team furnishing an honor guard. Father Tobin assisted the Bishop. Servers were Milton Schmidt and Harold Schmucker in CWV uniforms.

THE BISHOP, at the Mass, said that Catholics too often satisfy themselves with symbols and overlook the eternal realities. He said that the meaning of the ashes on Ash Wednesday, the spirit of sacrifice, should be made a reality until "we come to kiss the cross on Good Friday."

Featured at the breakfast were presentations of awards to the "outstanding Catholic laymen and laywomen of 1951." Frank E. Wolfe of 197 Culver Road, past president of the Nocturnal Adoration Society and the Laymen's Retreat League, was presented the CWV Medal by County Commander Donald J. Foley.

Mrs. Ronald J. McDonald of 381 Electric Ave., past president of the Catholic Women's Club and active in many Catholic women's groups, was presented a plaque on behalf of the Auxiliary by Mrs. Armand L. LaMay, county Auxiliary president.

Father Tobin, presented by Chairman James Haffey, commended the veterans for the turnout. "This," he said, "is your way of telling your fellow citizens that the Catholic War Veterans are not only firm believers in God, but doers and observers of His law."

He urged the veterans not to forget their "buddies who have made the supreme sacrifice."

The speaker warned against "Red vultures" threatening our borders and boring into the very foundation of our nation.

Citing the breakdown in morality in high places, the low regard for the marriage vows, and other subsequent evils following in the wake of moral laxity, Father Tobin urged his hearers to guard against these evils.

Adding to their alertness of radio and movie presentations, he asked the veterans to watch television, which at times brings low-grade burlesque type of entertainment into the homes.

Filthy literature, too, he declared, should be a concern of the veterans' organization to guard their children against its threat to their morality.

Previous medalists, John T. Nothnagle, Judge James P. E. Duffy, Frank R. Davis and Thomas H. O'Connor, were also guests of the CWV at the breakfast.

Mothers to See Model Convention

The Aquinas Mother's Club meeting on Tuesday evening, March 11, at 8:15 p. m. in the school auditorium will be highlighted by a model convention to be presented by the Aquinas History Club.

The convention to be portrayed will be the one of 1912 which nominated Teddy Roosevelt for the Presidency, and about 100 Seniors will take part.

The mothers will have as their guests, the fathers of the students and any of their friends and they are hoping for a large attendance as it promises to be entertaining.

A baked food sale in the cafeteria will follow.
