CATHOLIC HEADLINES on WHAM 12:10 Sunday by Rev. Richard Tormey for the COURIER-JOURNAL

Irish Ballads To Feature St. Francis Deaf Club Fete

St. Francis DeSales Deaf Club and their friends will dance and sing to the strains of ancient and modern Irish ballads at a party St. Patrick's Day, Mar. 17, in St. Joseph's Hall, Franklin St.

For the third consecutive year music will be furnished by Paddy O'Hara's Band. Feature of the evening will be Irish dances performed by members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, under the leadership of Mrs. Eileen Clifford. Patrick Murphy of Station WSAY will entertain with song and dance.

Prizes will be awarded for the man and woman adjudged most appropriately dressed for the event. Refreshments will be served.

Frank Crimmens and Sharon Fisher are chairmen, assisted by Mrs. Clarence Hefternan, Mrs. Elizabeth Mastrangeli, Mrs. John Kowalski, Mrs. George Barth and Mrs. Charles Greene.

OPEN-MINDED: — Descriptive of one who lets good convictions out more often than he lets doubtful opinions in.

Fr. Schnacky Next At Hotel

Rev. Albert H. Schnacky, diocesan director of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, will be the next speaker in the Catholic Information Series at Hotel Seneca on Monday, March 17, at 8 p. m.

Father Schnacky will speak on "The Sixth to Tenth Commandments."

S. T. Lusk Funeral Held In Holy Rosary

Funeral services for Sylvester T. Lusk, member of Holy Rosary Church for more than 45 years were held in his parish Church, Thursday, March 6 following services at the Joseph J. Buckley Funeral Parlors, 796 Dewey Ave.

Solemn Mass of Requiem was celebrated by the Rev. Paul G. Wohlrab assisted by the Rev. James J. Marvin, deacon and the Rev. Daniel Sullivan, Sub-deacon.

Mr. Lusk is survived by his wife, Mrs. Honora McGary Lusk; a daughter, Mrs. Patrick Burns; two grandchildren, Patrick and Joseph Burns. Bearers were James R. and William F. McGary, Thomas F. and James E. Saxby, John L. McGeary and Trevor W. Durrant. At the interment in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery the final blessing was given by the Rev. Daniel Sullivan and Father Elmer J. McDonald.

Mock Convention Held At Aquinas Elects 'Teddy'

"Teddy Roosevelt" won the presidential nomination at the Progressive Party convention Tuesday evening when students of Aquinas Institute staged a mock political convention in the school auditorium.

Delegates and witnesses learned how a Presidential convention works, including speeches and balloting. In its mechanics the convention was like those that will take place this summer in Chicago.

TO ELIMINATE contemporary politics, the Rev. Arthur Looby, C.S.B., moderator of the history club, explained that the now defunct party was selected as a model.

In the mock convention, following the one in Chicago in 1912 with modifications, Theodore Roosevelt (Walter Herman) was nominated on a convention speech actually written 36 years later to nominate Gov. Earl Warren.

Owen Hickey, a member of the History Club, was chairman of the event and Father Looby, chairman of the history department at Aquinas, supervised.

Guidance Group To Receive Communion

Members of the Family Guidance Group of Immaculate Conception parish will receive Holy Communion in a body at the 9 a. m. Mass on Sunday, Mar. 16, it was announced by Leo T. Minton, group chairman. James Coughlin and James Degnan will be ushers.

The ceremony of Reception will be conducted by the Rev. Leo C. Mooney, moderator of the Third Order of St. Francis at the March 23 at 3:30 p.m. in St. Patrick's Church, 454 Plymouth Ave. N., Rochester.

Father Mooney will also explain some of the new rules and practices to be followed by the various confraternities of the province as outlined by Father Fitzimmons of the Franciscan Monastery at Paterson, N. J., at the recent Visitation ceremony.

What the Third Order means today is outlined in the following from a circular issued by the Ministers General of the Order:

The Third Order of St. Francis is today too a living, timely force. Indeed in our day, after a brief period of slight eclipse, it is once again at full display of its life and activity. Everywhere, fervor and goodwill are noticeable to resume to the full the best traditions, religious and moral, of this third Seraphic soldiery.

In our day too the Third Order of St. Francis is giving evidence to the world, on every social and cultural level, of its success in perfectly imitating Christ in the Seraphic spirit: with Garcia Moreno; the saintly dock-hand Irish Matt Talbot; Hungarian Prince Ladislas Batthyany, physician of the poor; Blessed Contardo Ferrini and Vico Necchi, university professors; Leon Harmel, father of his working people; Aristide Leonori, engineer; attorney Anacleto Gonzalez Flores, martyr of Christ in the Mexican persecution; Giulio Salvadori, author and poet; Paul Pius Perazzo, railroader; Argene Fati, Eve Lavalliere, Dr. Maximilian Westermaier, and very many more.

The people we have mentioned are only a few of the flowers in this glorious modern garden of the Third Order, who with the eloquence of their number, of their deeds and of their sanctity testify clearly to the eternal profit only its rule and the spirit of fructiveness of the Third Order the rule are understood and really lived up to.

Good Friday Holiday Urged By Knights of St. John

Support of two measures in the State Legislature, one asking that Good Friday be declared a legal holiday and the other commending the President of the United States for promoting diplomatic relations with the Vatican, is urged by the Knights of St. John state legislative committee.

Knights and members of the Auxiliary in this area are urged to back the measure in a front page story in the "Rochester Reporter," regimental publication for this month.

Two measures, Senate Bills Nos. 122 and 876, and Assembly Bills Nos. 434 and 590 relate to the establishing of Good Friday as a legal holiday. Senate Bill No. 14 and Assembly Bill No. 9 in addition to commending the President requests senators from New York State to confirm the appointment of an ambassador, according to Norbert F. Abend of Syracuse, state legislative chairman for the Knights.

The Good Friday measures are the result of a resolution adopted at the New York Grand Commandery convention in Rochester last May.

The resolution read as follows:

"Our state and nation are governed by a system of laws which derive their authority from God. We are a Christian nation. It is a time-honored custom among us to honor mortal men who have given their lives in defense of our country. For such purpose we set aside Memorial Day, May 30.

"To Christians another day assumes at least equal importance, Good Friday. It is the day on which a Divine man, Jesus Christ, the Son of God, voluntarily gave His life for our Eternal Freedom. On that day, between the hours of 12 noon and 3 p. m., a hush seems to descend upon the earth as men everywhere bow their heads in reverend prayer to Him who made the Supreme Sacrifice for us.

"It is fitting, therefore that Good Friday be declared a legal holiday by our state and that each year the President of the United States proclaim this day a national holiday and day of prayer for all our people.

"Therefore Be It Resolved: That we do hereby respectfully urge the Legislature of the State of New York and the President of the United States to take the necessary action to accomplish that end; and be it further

"Resolved: That we do hereby authorize and direct the legislative committee of the Knights of St. John to continue its efforts for the procurement of such objective."
