Saint Benedict Film Offered

New York—(NC)—A feature length motion picture on the life of St. Benedict is being made available for Catholic audiences all over the United States in preparation for the celebration of his feast day on March 21, it was announced here by Simplex Religious Classics, producers of the English-dialogue film.

The movie shows the Saint fleeing from the corruption of fifth-century Rome to live as a hermit in a lonely cave at Subiaco. He overcomes the forces of hatred and war by preaching peace through the teachings of Christ, and becomes the great patriarch of western monasticism on Monte Cassino.

Auditions Set At Holy Family

Auditions for Holy Family Theatre's tenth stage production, an original musical, will be held on Sunday, Mar. 16, at 7 p.m. at the school auditorium, Ames and Jay Sts.

A cast of 80 actors will be chosen for this two-act production one of the largest number ever attempted on an amateur stage. The first act, entitled, "Corridor of Time", will have thirty songs, a medley of musical memories, depicting the 1890 to present era.

Highlights of the past six musicals since 1948 will be presented . . . comedy, melody, color, rhythm, song, dance, nostalgia, surprise and novelty, all neatly packaged for a delightful evening's entertainment.

The second act, "World of Tomorrow", deals with the future, based on a brand new idea.

Special lighting and black-light scenes, will enhance the beauty of the scenic background, originally designed by Frank Treu, scenic artist.

Joe Schneider and Frank Britt are the musical directors, assisted by Helen Schrammi and Bill Metzger, vocal coaches. Choreography by Lois, Joanne and Bob Kuchman, dance instructors. Moderator is Father Bauer, assistant pastor at Holy Family Church.

Family Theater Presents 'Burden On The Family'

Gene Lockhart and his wife, Kathleen, will co-star on the Family Theater stage in "Burden On The Family" at 9:30 p.m. EST, over WMBO, Auburn, Mar. 19.

GENE Lockhart plays the role of Captain Abel Twelvetrees, a famed old explorer whose niece can no longer afford to keep him at home. Because of his illness he is transferred to the City Home for Incurables. Shortly after his arrival, the spunky old sea captain discovers among the women patients, Judy Lamport, the girl who he had deeply loved forty years ago.

Though they are both old and ill, they renew a great friendship that has been mellowed by the years. The institute doctor tells the Captain that Judy's illness can be cured if they can procure the vital drugs.

THE Captain appeals to a number of his old comrade-explorers, a fund is raised, the drugs are obtained, and Judy is cured. The incurable old sea captain is thrilled with joy to see his once-crippled friend leave the Home, cured.

"Burden on the Family" was written for Family Theater by Jack Mitchell. Family Theater is directed by Joseph F. Mansfield, and the Mutual Orchestra is under the direction of Harry Zimmerman.

Social Justice Club To See Defense Films

Two sound films sponsored by Civil Defense and dealing with the A-Bomb will be shown at the Social Justice Club of Rochester meeting Saturday, March 15, in St. Joseph's School hall basement.

Rudolph C. Schwenzer, president, will call the meeting at 8:15 p. m. and movies will be shown at 9 p. m. Guest speaker will be Herman Walz, Zone Warden of Zone One.

Organist Listed At The Dryden

Porter Heaps, internationally famed organ virtuoso, will conduct an organ seminar in Rochester at 8 p.m. Tuesday, March 11 at Dryden Theater of George Eastman House under the sponsorship of Joseph Shale, Hammond organ dealer in this area, Shale announced today.

The seminar will be attended by about 400 church organists and music teachers from Rochester and vicinity. Using a Hammond organ to develop his major theme, "Creating Beautiful Tone Colors on Harmonic Drawbars," Mr. Heaps will demonstrate how the proper use of the harmonic drawbars that are a distinctive feature of the Hammond organ can provide an almost endless number of tonal combinations and afford extreme flexibility in selection and arrangement of numbers, Shale said.

Mr. Heaps, who has been a church organist and choir director since the age of 18, received his Bachelor of Music degree from Northwestern University when he was 21 years old and spent the next three summers studying with Marcell Dupre in Paris.

Mr. Heaps has appeared as guest soloist with the Detroit and Chicago Symphony Orchestra and climaxed a concert tour of South America by presenting the Guilmant "Concerto for Organ and Orchestra" with the National Symphony Orchestra in Bogota, Colombia.
