DCCW Board Asks Foster Homes For 75 Students From Austria and Germany

Members of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women at the quarterly Board meeting in Geneva, were asked to cooperate with the National Council in the Student Exchange Program.

It was explained that foster homes for 75 students from Austria and Germany were needed. By being a hostess to one of these students is an excellent way to contribute to international understanding and good will, members were told.

While the student seems to be the direct recipient of benefits bestowed, the foster family also gains in cultural and educational values. Parents desiring more information are urged to contact Mrs. Frank G. Shaughnessy, 794 Post Ave., Rochester.

Following the reports of the Diocesan Chairmen on the progress of Council projects throughout the Diocese, Mrs. Shaughnessy, President of the Diocesan Council, was elected delegate to the National Convention scheduled for October 1952, in Seattle, Washington.

GREETINGS were extended to the recently elected Deaneary president, Mrs. Glenn Jamieson, president of Corning Deaneary;
