Confer On College Dance Plans

WHITE ORCHIDS are examined for use at the White Orchid Ball of St. John Fisher College, set Friday May 9 at Oak Hill Country Club. Selecting orchids for the Orchid Queen to be crowned at the dance are: (from left) Mrs. J.

Malory Loos, patroness; John Falvino, committee chairman; Mrs. Robert E. Glina, patroness; Robert F. M. Moore, chairman and Donald Snyder, Jr. of Perry Florist.

Sale, Bazaar Set White Orchid Ball Listed By St. John Fisher College

Sisters of Mercy will conduct a sale and bazaar in the Mercy High School gymnasium, Blossom Rd., Friday, May 9.

A variety of handmade articles including pillowcases, towels, tea aprons, work aprons, and smock aprons will be offered. Hand-painted plaques and gifts suitable for Mother's Day will be available. Homemade pies, cakes, cookies and breads will also be on sale.

Friends of the Sisters and members of the Mercy Guild, Mother's Club and Mercy Alumnae are invited.

Decorations and crowning of the "Orchid Queen" will carry out the theme of the White Orchid Ball to be held for St. John Fisher College students on Friday, May 9.

The affair, a closed formal dance, and spring social event of the College's first class is scheduled at Oak Hill Country Club from 10 to 2.

Students of the College are entering portraits of their dates for the Ball in the contest to choose the Orchid Queen. Ballots will be cast on Wednesday, May 7 by the student body and three photographs will be selected.

FROM THE THREE girls chosen by the students, patrons will select a Queen during the intermission of the Ball. Her crown will consist of a ring of smaller, lavender orchids.

Robert F. M. Moore, ball chairman has named to his committee, E. Joseph Hill, Michael Carney, Robert Brasser, John Falvino, Sam Bonifacio and Roger Redler.

Robert Brasser, student body chairman of St. John Fisher College is honorary chairman of the ball.

Music will be furnished by Bill Sherman and his orchestra.

Announcement for patrons of the Ball lists: the Messis and Mesdames J. Malloy Loos, E. William Gregory, Robert E. Glina, Paul A. McGuire, George M.

Old Clothes Party Slated For Dancers At Immaculate

Friday night dance to be held in the Immaculate Auditorium on May 9 will be an old clothes, informal party. This annual Spring dance is scheduled each year to allow the patrons to attend the dance in casual attire. Joan Merkel of Mercy High School and Leo Degnan of Aquinas Institute, are the chairmen.

Music will be furnished by Joe Nolan and his thirteen piece orchestra. Betty Cole of Nazareth Academy will be the vocalist.

SPECIAL DANCE routines will be staged by Marilyn Holden of West High School. Elizabeth Hobin also of West High School will be the accompanist.

Graduate in Airy Nylon Net
for the great day, and for summer dances

When the class of '52 plans its graduation, drifts of nylon net over whispering taffeta will be part of the plan to make the day memorable. "Commencement" is the word for this lovely fashion, because that's only its beginning. On it goes to summer dances with popular juniors. These dresses meet the standards set by the students in Rochester's Catholic high schools.
