Look and Listen
 By FAWN SCHEFFEL
 The Rev. Louis A. Gales of the Catholic Radio and Television Guild (147 E. Fifth St., St. Paul 1, Minn.) writes that a film studio in Mexico is anxious to produce a series of Catholic films for television. Father Gales will be glad to make arrangements for the purchase of suitable treatments for shooting scripts. Lives of the Saints are not wanted, but rather basic material dealing with the teachings of the Church.

The second and final installment of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," starring Rudolph Valentino, will be shown at the Dryden Theater of George Eastman House Saturday, May 3, at 8:30 p. m. and Sunday, May 4, at 2:30 and 4 p. m.

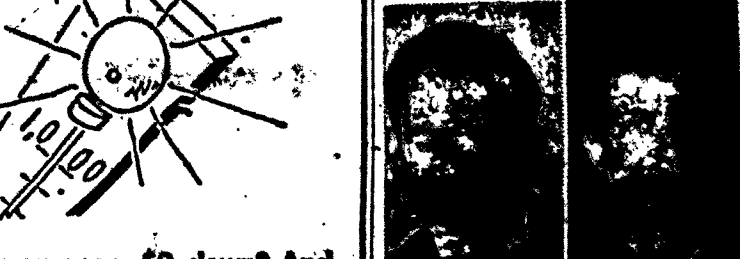

Speaker for the month of May on the Christians in Action program heard over Station WARC.

In an attempt to foll the TV line the Aquinas Spotlight Club is running a regular performance of their play, "See How They Run," on Sunday afternoon, May 4. Because local dramatic organizations have been hard hit by the public preference to TV we trust this Aquinas experiment will prove successful.

The fifth Family Theater television film, entitled "The World's Greatest Mother," is being offered for Mother's Day release. Local TV stations haven't scheduled the program as yet. The film re-creates four of the most memorable events in the life of the Blessed Mother, and is narrated by Ethel Barrymore, reading from the Scriptures.

Tommy Russell and Mary Rose Muller will take bows with the Rochester Holy Family Theater.

cast of "Flashback Follows" May 4 through 9. Tommy made his television debut in July, 1951, when he appeared with the Paul Whitman TV-Teen Club co-hosted from Philadelphia. Mary Rose is a veteran of the theatre's many shows and will portray two difficult character parts.

Priests Listed For TV 'Thought'
 "Thought for the Day," speakers on WHAM-TV at 9:55 a.m. to 10 a.m. on two days next week are announced by the Rev. Charles V. Boyle, associate superintendent, Catholic Schools, Diocese of Rochester as follows:
 Tuesday, May 6—Rev. Gerald E. Dunn, assistant pastor, Immaculate Conception Church.
 Friday, May 9—Rev. George S. Wood, assistant pastor, Immaculate Conception Church.

Woman Runs For President In SRO Minstrel

The story of a woman candidate for President of the United States will be unfolded in "Strictly Senatorial," a musical comedy to be given at Nazareth College auditorium, 4245 East Avenue, Friday and Saturday nights, May 2 and 3.

Curtain time for the S.R.O. (Standing Room Only) performance is 8:15. Tickets will be sold at the door.

"Strictly Senatorial" was written and directed by Elizabeth Hayes and Eileen Flanagan, students in the women's college conducted by the Sisters of St. Joseph.

Kathleen Nugent stars in the role of the female presidential aspirant who complicates matters by falling in love with her principal opponent.

Original words and music for the show were composed by Jeanette Lortscher and Dolores Thomas. Ten songs by soloists and chorus plus six dance routines are included.

Music Scholarships Awarded By McCurdy

Final concert of the season of the McCurdy Little Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Dr. Paul White was held Tuesday night at Rochester Radio City.

Highlight of the final broadcast over WHAM was the announcement by Dr. Howard Hanson, director of the Eastman School of Music, of the McCurdy Senior Scholarship winners to the Eastman School for 1952-1953. Eileen Ewers of Bartonville, Ill., and Constance Perloff of Wilkes Barre, Pa., were awarded the McCurdy scholarships.

Gordon W. McCurdy, vice-president of McCurdy & Company, which has provided Eastman scholarships since 1943, adding more than 50 students, introduced Dr. Hanson. He thanked Dr. Hanson for serving as chairman of the committee that annually auditions promising young students needing financial assistance in continuing their studies at the Eastman School.

Aquinas Cast To Ring Up Curtain

A cast of Aquinas Seniors supported by Mercy girls, Julie and Mary Jo Langie, the Spotlight Club offers its third and final play of the season, "See How They Run" May 4 and 5.

"See How They Run" outstanding hit comedy of the London stage has had tremendous success in America.

LEAD comic parts are handled by Jim Wohlrad and Mary Jo Langie. Joan Gordon who had the lead role in "Ramshead Inn" of last season scores as Miss Skillion outraged parishioner of Rev. Lionel Toon, portrayed by Don Bull.

Jerry Grassel introduces the element of intrigue as the Russian who is subsequently captured by Jack Connors in his role of the Cockney police sergeant.

BOB DAVIS: Julie Langie and Dave MacDonald only succeed in confusing the issue as the action of the play reaches a climax amid the ringing of church bells and wild cries of "the-revolution" from the Russian spy.

S. H. Girls Offer 'Green Gables'

Dramatic Club of the Academy of the Sacred Heart will present a three-act play, "Anne of Green Gables," Sunday, May 4, at 2:30 p.m. in the school gymnasium, Prince Street.
