

St. Philip Units List Breakfast

Ladies of Fatima Society and their mothers will join with the members of the Holy Name Society of St. Philip Neri Church in marking Mother's Day by receiving Communion in a body at the 8 a. m. Mass.

A Communion breakfast will follow and the Very Rev. Augustine J. Aylward, C.S.B., director of the Notre Dame Retreat House, will address the group.

The committee includes Joseph Rief, chairman; Clarence Grove, Michael Ferrara, Paul Stock, Michael LaRocca, Sam Bona, Oscar Rosenbauer, Eugene Petrossi and Richard Kassarman.

Rosary Merges Spiritual, Family Life Says Priest

Geneva — "Family life and spiritual life are brought close together in the recitation of the Rosary," Rev. Thomas G. Sanderson, of the Redemptorist Order told 85 members of St. Francis de Sales Rosary Society Sunday.

Father Sanderson was guest speaker at the annual Communion breakfast of the society in Hotel Seneca.

Entertainment program featured the youngest and the oldest member of the organization, Miss Sylvia Madia, one of the youngest members, sang "Ave Maria," accompanied by Miss Elaine Christiano; and Mrs. Thomas A. Kane, oldest member, sang, "The Rosary," Henry Bolin was accompanist.

FATHER SANDEBSON spoke on the subject of "The Rosary," emphasizing that inasmuch as the organization is a "Rosary Society," the members should make recitation of the Rosary an integral part of their lives. He particularly urged recitation of the Rosary during May, "the month of Our Lady," who has "asked-us to pray to her for world peace."

Since the days of St. Dominic, he said, the Rosary has been an implement for good and for peace in the world. He recalled the well-known theme of the Family Rosary Hour radio program, "the family that prays together stays together."

Mrs. John F. Gleason was toastmistress. Mrs. Leo Knight was chairman of arrangements, assisted by Mrs. J. Howard Groden, Mrs. Francis Madia, Mrs. Jay Cochrane, Mrs. Nicholas Fleming, Miss Margaret Marino, Miss Marguerite Riley, Mrs. Thomas Jennings, Mrs. Leon Tyler and Miss Edith Chacchla.

FOLK DANCING FEATURED

SCHOOL MUSIC FESTIVAL of Rochester's Catholic Schools, scheduled Wednesday evening, May 14, at Eastman Theatre will feature these pupils from St. Stanislaus School who will be seen in the Polish Dance of the Nobility. From left are: Joyce Budinski, Leonard Buszowski, Christine Przybyla and Richard Reeder.

Father, Daughter Featured in College Glee Concert

In the Spring Musical presented on May 6 in the College Auditorium, Emmitsburg, Maryland, Raymond J. Hasenauer, M.Mus., was the guest conductor for St. Joseph College Glee Club, while his daughter, Miss Lois Hasenauer, a senior at the College, supplied the piano accompaniment.

Hasenauer is well known in Rochester as the Director of Music at Aquinas Institute, Director of the University of Rochester Marching Band, and Choirmaster at Sacred Heart Cathedral. Miss Hasenauer will graduate from St. Joseph College on June 4, receiving a Bachelor of Science Degree.

She has been accompanist for the Glee Club at the College during her four years as a student and has played many piano solos on student concert programs during those years.

The program included a group of folk songs, selections by Beethoven, Mozart, A double Mixed Quartet, comprised of students from St. Joseph's and Mount Saint Mary's, a neighboring men's college, sang the Filigetto Quartet and selections from Charles Bryan's Textbooks Suite. Miss Hasenauer played as piano solos Beethoven's Fur Elise and Paderewski's Minuet in G.

St. Joseph College in Emmitsburg was established in 1899 by Mother Elizabeth Ann Seton and is conducted by the Daughters of Charity of Saint Vincent de Paul who also conduct St. Mary's Hospital in Rochester.

St. Augustine Group To Hear Fr. O'Meara

Rosary Society of St. Augustine's parish will hold an annual Communion Breakfast Sunday, May 11. The Rosarians will pay tribute to their own mothers as well as the Blessed Mother under whose divine guidance their organization has been placed.

The Rev. John F. O'Meara, C.S.B., Ph.D., president of St. John Fisher College, will be guest speaker.

Mrs. Peter Flanagan, president, has appointed Mrs. James McMahon, chairman and Mrs. William Sullivan co-chairman. Mrs. John Rowan is in charge of reservations and Mrs. Augustine M. Nolan, publicity.
