'Little Nellie Kelly' Operetta Delights Auburn Audience

By MARGARET BOYCE

Auburn — Thunderous and well deserved applause greeted the cast of "Little Nellie Kelly" at Holy Family, May 12, when the curtain fell on one of the most entertaining plays ever presented here.

The Glee Club handled Cohart's delightful melodies and the dance routings were cleverly executed. Suzanne Vollmar as Nellie and Paul Flinski as Jerry Conroy her beau, captured the audience with their excellent voices and performances. Tom Donnelly, an admirer of Nellie's, was also well received.

Ray Cuddy as Wallace and Marlene Fedigan as Marie Langford were a highly successful song and dance team.

Bob Keller's police Captain and Nellie's father was a great hit as was Beverly Twomey who played Mrs. Langford. Mary Ward a maid, Jack Gargan a butler, Albert Delmonte a French shop-keeper and Jean Graney his assistant added to the plot by their humorous portrayals.

First Communion SPECIAL $8.95
Includes: $3.00 for Mass, $3.00 for Catechism, $2.95 for Campagna Photographer.

De Sales Senior Play Opens Sunday

Genera — De Sales High School seniors will present the senior class play "Smarter and Smoother" Sunday afternoon and evening May 25 in De Sales High School Auditorium.

Jean McNicholas and John Bates will have the roles of the quite-strict father and the easy-going father, respectively and Western Baldwin.

Ann Bullock dons a spartanly tailored suit to enact the role of the older daughter, Iris, 21, who has both "beauty and brains". Her life work is writing a love-romance.

Cathy Younger, sister, 16, is played by Mary Lou Davis. Just sixteen and ignoring boys and dates, she goes on her "simple way" until certain people turn her into "a smarter and smoother teenager". All this is done to enable Cathy to get a date with the tall, handsome, athletic, human Phil, played by Robert Costabile.

Dorothy Lehr, with horn-rimmed glasses and shorthand notebook, plays the part of the efficient Miss Lewis, secretary to Iris Baldwin.

The clever teenager, well aware of her good looks and personality, is dramatized by Patricia O'Malley. Happy-go-lucky Cynthia, 17, is played by Helen Dunham.

Louise Alvarez plays the role of gleaming, beautiful Larry, a pal of Phil. Mary Ann Valentine enacts the role of Arlene, the ultra-feminine teen-ager, and Alan Palmer has the role of the young sports editor of the newspaper.

FUNDS FOR BOOK RENTAL

Nazareth French Club Stages Play

French Club of Nazareth Academy is presenting a two-act comedy "Une Alerté" Monday, May 26, in the school auditorium on Lake Avenue.

In a fashionable apartment in the exclusive Ecole section of Paris, on a spring evening in 1952, the few inhabitants left in the apartment after the exodus to the country and seashore are disturbed by an "alert" sirens. Richard Moriarty of Aquinas, as John Lambert, the American director of M.S.A. and Joanne Morris, president of the French club at Nazareth, playing the role of his wife take refuge in the quarters of the consierge and her sister played by Laura Holmes and Vivian Paulborg.

FERRIS LANDRY, Kathleen Burns and Jane Maloney as the Berdier family, father, mother and daughter, return from the theater in great trepidation at the thought of possible bombing. It develops that the two families are at 666 1/2 Avenue des Champs Elysees and the prospect of spending an evening together is not at all to their liking.

The unexpected arrival of Peter Lambert, a Captain in the American Air Force in Korea played by Peter Kress, relieves the situation especially since he informs them that the "alert" is only a practice one conceived by the officials as a result of the presence of numerous planes in the vicinity of Paris summoned to demonstrate the latest in models for a secret meeting of the military leaders of the United Nations and SHAPE.

PETER AND Jeannine Berdier have been corresponding unknown to their parents and are deeply in love. Peter has made such a good impression that the two families become completely reconciled and the play closes with the promise of an engagement announcement on the morrow.

Kathleen Dunham is the Berdier maid furnishes a delightful bit of humor.
