Rochester, N. Y.

COURTER-JOURNAL, FRIDAY, MAY 30, 1952

British Columbia Catholics Demand Fair Share Of Their Taxes -For Schools -- Not Cent Of Protestants

Columbia Catholics want a fair share of Catholic taxes to support their own schools. They do not want one red cent of Protestant money.

This flat statement of "What We Want" and "What We Do Not Want" was made by The Prospector, Catholic weekly newspaper published here, In a front-page article the paper gave what it said were the views on the controversial education issue.

CATHOLICS IN the Canadian province have objected strenu- the parent with the right to eduously to paying taxes whit go cate his child - the State is the their own schools. This "double ship. Catholic parents want all taxation" exists nowhere else in studies to be shown in their re-Canada, although it is the rule lationship to God - the Author in the United States.

The B. C. Catholic Education Association is opposing "any poprovincial elections June 12.

HERE IS WHAT British Columbia Catholics want, according religious creed. to the Prospector:

"First, Catholics want their no peace, where one group is schools. "Second, Catholics do want the not want, in the Prospector's ponse to many questions received right to exist - without being opinion: penalized, without being discriminated against.

"THE NATURAL law endows while they must also support democracy. All else is dictator- it for the support of Catholic and the End of all knowledge. tem.

"Finally, Catholic want what every sincere citizen of B.C. inlitical party which denies min- stinctively desires - harmony ority rights in education" in the and peace among all su-jects not bitterness toward any political party, any racial group, any

"But there can be no harmony, many great statesmen and schol- reporter he met and was inspired ars have come from the Public by School. "Third, Catholics do not want just as the man who holds the ready follow the course of studies had fought in all the American laid down by the Department of wars. He attended Baltimore pub-Education."

Japanese Convert General Dies

Tokyo -(NC) - A few hours after Japan's World War II General Isamu Yokohama died uddenly in Sugamo prison here, a Mass was said for him there by one of the Salesian Fathers, Hundreds of other prisoners attended the Mass, including many who once held high rank in the Japanese army and navy.

General Yokohama was converted to Catholicism about two years ago, together with his wife, They were received into the Church by the Rev. Leopold Tibesar, M. M., whose whose preparations for writing "The Greatest Story Ever Told" led him into the Church, died here today. He was 59.

Fulton Oursler, 59, Dies; Writing Led To Conversion New York -(NC) - Fulton Oursler, best-selling author

Author of 25 books and five penalized with the alternative of plays, top periodical editor, movie either sending their children to a scenario writer, contributor to Public School system which is leading magazines, Mr. Oursler against the conscience of the parwas one of the most successful ents or being forced to pay for popular writers and editors of the support of the Public School his day. Yet after becoming a system and then out of their convert nine years ago he wrote: own funds to crect and support "Fifty years of neglect lie bea school system which is in keephind me. I must work fast to ing with their conscience." make up for that wasted time." HERE IS WHAT Catholics do "TO ALL THOSE who are attracted and yet frightened and

"First, Catholics do not want reluctant, I say there is no way one red cent of Protestant money. to peace on earth except in the

"Catholics heartily agree with footsteps of the Master," he Protestants that it would be a wrote in "The Road to Damasgrave injustice to take any part entirely to the public schools servant of the parent. This is a of Protestant tax money and use cus," which tells of the spiritual pilgrimage of 15 converts.

Public Schools. It was while making notes for "Second, Catholics do not want "The Greatest Story Ever Told," to attack the public school syswhich he said he had planned as an elevator boy's life of Jesus," "CATHOLICS RESPECT the that Mr. Oursler reached his deeditor of America, and the Rev. God-given right of every Protestant to send his child to the cision to enter the Church. Yet Martin J. Scott, S.J., author who school which is in keeping with last year, in receiving the Card- is attached to St. Francis Xavier's his religious belief - the Public inal Gibbons Medal from the School. Catholics believe that Alurnni Association of the Cath-highest office in our country is olic University of America, he product of the Catholic Public said he felt that his conversion eight book - length detective School System (Canadian Prime began more than 40 years prev-Minister Louis St. Laurent), so lous. That was when as a cub > the famous Cardinal and president of the Catholic Insti-Archbishop of Baltimore in 1911.

MR. OURSLER WAS born in necessarily an integration in the Baltimore to a Protestant family and in 1951 he received the instipublic school system -- this was descended from the earliest set- tute's literary award. Last Nomere proposal. Catholics al- tiers of Maryland. His ancestors vember he gave a featured adlic schools. Although brought up

Bapilst, "in the middle of my teers I announced to my friends hat I was an agnostic," he recalled later. After reporting for the Baltiore American and later becoming its music critic, he went to New York as managing editor of Protestant Parents Plan Music Trades. From 1921-42 he was editor in chief of Macfadden. Publications, and for the last 11 of these years also editor in chief of Liberty. In 1944 he became senior editor of the Reader's Groups of parents plan to origest and he has written many gamize at least '50 more Chrisfeature articles for that magatiam day schools in the next ine. few years, it was announced For many years he supervised here by the National Union of "The Greatest Story Ever Told" Christian Schools in telling of radio program. He wrote a syriplans for its annual convention dicated column, "Modern Parables."

in Chicago, Aug. 12-14. The National Union

Eisenhower Praises Pope's Fight Against Communism

Zeist, The Netherlands - (NC) - Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower told Catholic, Protestant and Jewish army chaplains here that the Pope has set an example to the free world in his spiritual leadership against the evil of communism. "Through Being a devoted and nearly famatic Protestant," the General said, "I like to declare how I.

Boston - (RNS) - Archand every bishop Richard J. Cushing of Christian with Boston took issue here with me, admire the Gen. Dwylght

Ike Chided

On Chaplain

Cushing

down.'

Statement

mamner in E.I sen how. which the er's recent Pope of Rome, statement that the Holy Fathchaplains in er, and his orthe ar med forces dare ganization have led the not doing battle against that bad and reservations' in the dust bowl their job." nortal thing that is communism, and desert areas of our coun-·11 the that tries to overwhelm our try, has become the sickest reneral made earth, that tries to win the souls and most destitute race in such a state-of men, and that will reduce and our American melting pot. ment," the degrade them to pawns handled A r chbishop Archbishop said, by the power which has its seat should at in the Kremlin." least qualify that statement." GENERAL EISENHOWIER

A May 19 dispatch from The continued: "I believe that his (the Pope's) example must be Hague, the Netherlands, quoted Gen. Eisenhower as saying followed all along the line and that he intended to lell the that this is not to be confined to chaplains of the NATO forces the clergy." the next day that they were (Some months ago, General. not doing their job. On the Elsenhower was quoted as say. following day, a dispatch from ing that he was a Protestant, al-Zeist, the Netherlands, said: though not a member of any "Apparently Gen. Eisenhower particular church.) changed his mind about giv-The General carne to the Neth-ing the chaplains a dressing erlances during his farewell tour of countries linked together in Archbishop Cushing said the North Atlantic Treaty Orthat if the European commandganization (NATO). In his ader thought the chaplains were dress to the chaptains who came not doing their job, he might from the various countries rep at least have explained why. resented in NATO, General Eis-The Archbishop also said he nhower stressed the importance of spiritual leadership and declared that the struggle for free. dom and the whole concept of NATO must be based on religious laith. FREEDOM AND faith go to gether, the General said, pointing their bodies clean and healthy, out that the communist dictators and their souls pleasing to have found it necessary to deny God. You can become a part God, while "democracy and of this great work by rememfreedom are the translation Into bering it in your prayers and political terms of a deep abid by helping us to send the ma-ing religious faith among men." terial things needed for the Grand Bapids- (BNS) - | kind in the nation. It now has He dieclared that, in these days, 156 schools as members, located in 24 states and three the causes for which men and nations go to war, are "largely sionaries of the Cross?

Eisenhower

General Eisenhower rejected the views of those military com. For Catholic Indian Missions manciers who hold that military Reverend Bernard A. Collem,

Catholic Vets Plan

Convention Parade

Ballimore, Mid - (NC) - A three-hour parade through down-town Baltimore will be a Secture of the national convention of the Catholic War Veterans and their

Ladies' Auxiliary here June 19

Forgotten

American Children

Urgently Need

Your Help

The Indians who welcomed

Solumbus when he landed in a

America were a hale and nearty people. But the conquered red man, consigned to Over one-third of these for-

In our mission schools, Indian children like this are taught to earn their living in a white man's world, to keep work.

Why not send a geneerous gift now for our valiant misideological" in character. MARQUETTE LEAGUE discipline and religious faith do Director Genteral Church, New York City. Besides writing eight novels under his own name, he wrote stories under the name of Anthony Abbot. In 1950 Mr. Oursler served as tute of the Press, New York City, dress at the national congress of the Confraternity of Christian had received a' letter from Archbishop Aloysius J. Doctrine in Chicago. Muench, Papal Nuncio to Ger-His books include "Father Flanmany, asking him "to do someagan of Boys' Town," which he thing about the pictures of pinup girls and bathing beauties" vrote in collaboration with his son, Will Oursler, who followed appearing in the army mubilcation Stars and Stripes. him into the Church.

FULTON OURSLER

Fifty New Day Schools

of

provinces of Canada, Fifteen of the 156 are Christian high schools. Ten new schools were Union are controlled by groups of parents committed to Cal-

Schools in the National opened last September.

Tas, the Hely Ghost, the Hely Spirit of God's Love, is Our Second Josus. The Church is His Falesting: Pontecest, which we celebrate on June 1, was His Schlichem and Nataroth. And He came upon the fearful Aposies in the Upper Room, sweeping down upon them as a mighty wind and in the Upper Room, sweeping down upon them as a mighty wind and in the forms of tengues of fire, pushing them out into the wide world to bring it the Good News of Christ. And He changed Our Lady from the Mother of Sorrows to the Queen of the Apostel

Today ether Madennas and eiker Christs re forth from other Canacles A way ener manentals and enter chrone porter inter charles into our Near East Mission lands. 'Can you adopt one of them? This wook we appeal specially for SISTRE CYRILLA, a novice with the Sisters of the Holy Hearts at Bikfaya, Lebanon. She can be your adopted daughter. She needs $150 for this last year of her training. Then we are prayerfully hepeful that someone will adopt THOMAS, who has five years to go to the Altar. In St. Joseph's Semimary, Always, India, he will meed $500.

Even if these sums are too great, your monthis deposit in MARY'S BANK for Near East nums or for the CHRYSOSTOMS, for the support of Near East seminarians, will do wonders.

FORGOTTEN? TWO HEARTS

Slowly we are gathering the funds needed to build our SHRINE CHAPEL OF OUR LADY OF With June 15 coming, shall we forget FATHER'S DAY? He may be with us or gone to God, but he FATIMA among the poor of the will be very pleased with your gift. Sisters of the Destitute in Alwaye, will be very pleased with your gift. Sisters of the Destitute in Alwaye, If living, why not send him our India. In it we hope to place the beautiful thres-color GIFT CARD, LATE HEART of Falima and the saying you are having Mass ef-fered by a Near East missionary. HEART of Jesus. Each will cost or have given a sacred article to a $100. If you cannot do this, any poor Mission Chapel in his name? mite helps raise this Shrine.

WITHOUT FATHER, WITHOUT MOTHER!

But they do seem and are happy. Little erphans-130 of themunder the care of the Sisters of Charly at Broummans, Lebanos, they depend on us to keep them. happy and fed. The Sisters need only $7 to feed one of them for a whole month. Can you help? Even your dollar monthly for ORPHAN'S BREAD helps us to make them and many others joyful.

many eithers joyful. GOD'S WANT ADS FATHER JOHN CHAMY is our chaplain for the poor and incur-able in the sanatorium at Be-hannes, Lebanon. So as to pre-pare them to meet their Lord with plous hearts, after distressing ill-nesses, he begs us to provide him with rosaries, little crucifixes and prayer books. He can do miracles in that mission land with a $5 sift. Thus you help others to smile their Thus you help others to smile their way to Heaven. GOD'S WANT ADS From the SISTERS OF CHAR-From the SISTERS OF CHAR-ITY in far off Hebo, Eritres, comes an urgent plea for FIRST COM-MUNION for their homeless tots. You give them their happlest day by your offering of $10. And for the cloistered CARMELITE SIS-the state of the food packages we must send them every month. FATHER HENRY AYROUT begs many schools he has in Egypt. way to Heaven. many schools he has in Egypt.

BEACH SCENE: Saint Augustine | ONLY ONE: The only Co said farewell to his holy mether. St. sion Our Lord ever asked was one Monice on the beach at Ostis, Italy. of reparation for the size of others Your dollar monthly to the MON- of the Nine Fridays. The Ciberium, ICA GUILD helps us to gather the holding the Communion heads, fifty dollars to place. Mass vert-costs $40 in our New Kast Mission monts on other sous et, worthy Lands. Your tilbute is the Saured

Pear East Missions Very Lev. Amirow Louis

Rev. Poter P. Tuony Rev. Wm. Kaller Dum Send all es Catholic Tear East Welfare Association New York 17. H.Y. 400 Lonington Ave. at 46th St.

