Buffalo Racers To Vie At Fairgrounds

Four highly regarded Buffalo stock car drivers will report to the Monroe County Fairgrounds speedway, Friday night, with one goal—to upset Dutch Hoag of Naples. Last season, the Bisontown contingent, headed by the brilliant Don White—now retired from racing—captured more than 75 percent of the feature races. This year Hoag has dominated the features, and preliminaries as well, being undefeated to date.

The four Buffalo pilots—Hugh Armstrong, Gene Blair, Hugh Daragh and Eddie Lenz—are all capable of upsetting the Flying Dutchman, provided they run into a maximum of performance and a minimum of bad luck.
