

DCCW Workshop Attracts Area Women To Cenacle

Representatives from the Deaneries of Auburn, Corning, Elmira, Geneva, Hornell, Ithaca and Rochester, Diocesan Council of Catholic Women convened this week at the Cenacle convent for a two-day Council Workshop.

Under the direction of Mrs. Frank Shaughnessy, Diocesan President, the sessions were planned to clarify current projects of the Council, to suggest future programming and by open discussion to assist any Deanery with a particular problem.

THE AGENDA included a panel discussion of "The Workings of the Council," moderated by the Rev. Albert Shamon. Members of the Panel are: Mrs. Joseph Schmitt, Mrs. Frank Shaughnessy, Miss Jeanne Schneider and Miss Walter Veltz. Mrs. Frank T. Curran discussed the future planning of the work of the Council and the ways in which these plans can be achieved.

The following Diocesan Chairmen reported on the achievements of their respective committees: Organization and Development, Mrs. Ronald McDonald; International Relations, Mrs. James Raina; War Relief, Mrs. Colin Tracey; Spiritual Development, Mrs. Elmer Lortz; Libraries and Literature, Miss Madeline Stenger; Family and Parent Education, Mrs. Lawrence Weiss; Publicity, Mrs. Angelo Mastrella.

The workshop concluded June 11 at 4 p. m. with Benediction.

University Station Manila (NC)—The Catholic university of the Philippines, Santo Tomas, has inaugurated a dramatic presentation of Catholic news over its own radio station DZST.

Workshop of D. C. C. W.

Third Order of St. Francis will meet at 8:30 p. m. Sunday, June 12, at St. Patrick's Church, 454 Plymouth Ave. North, under the direction of the Rev. Leo C. Mooney, spiritual advisor. No meetings will be held in July and August.

Since there are no meetings in the summer time, the meeting notice said: "Since there is always a tendency to neglect regular practices in hot weather, tertians are urged:

—to continue daily Mass and Communion whenever possible; —to recite the Franciscan Crown frequently;

—to use in of the Family Rosary every night at 10 p. m.; —to listen to the Hour of St. Francis at 5:30 p. m. on Saturdays over WHAM;

—to say the Office early in the day so that it need not be hurried;

—to wear the cord and scapular faithfully.

"It would be well also for tertians to provide themselves with adequate spiritual reading for the summer from the fraternity library.

Let each member follow his holy Father, St. Francis, who loved all natural beauty, and strive to spend the pleasant summer months walking always in the presence of God."
