Look and Listen

Willford Scott, staff director of the Catholic Theatre of Rochester, announces that the group has launched plans for an active theater season opening in September.

At a recent meeting arrangements were made for three new one-act plays which will be made available in the fall to parishes and auxiliary organizations of the diocese. These new plays added to last year's repertory, will have their own directors and casts. In addition, a full-length children's play is planned to be presented for the grammar school age group of the city.

During the summer months a play-reading committee will function finding plays acceptable in the Catholic Theatre tradition and a work-shop group, with original pieces in mind will be experimenting with lighting and stage properties applicable to taking plays "on the road." Carl Zollo designs the sets for the group.

Robert Smett, secretary to the group, shows a sizeable list of parishes and Church organizations throughout the city who have patronized the Catholic Theatre during the past year.

The company presented "The Nun With Red Shoes," "The Devil, The Sausage Maker's Inheritance," "The Legend of Our Lady's Juggler," Christmas in the Village Square and Appointment At High Noon during the past season.

THE PLAYERS have always been received with enthusiasm, Thomas McAvoy and Robert Brice, business managers, tell us. Each play was presented initially at the St. Mary's Nurses Home auditorium through the hospitality of Sister Christine and the Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul.

The St. Mary's Nurses Choir, under the direction of Suzanne Wieg, on several occasions accompanied the players on engagements.

Robert Smett, author of "The Nun With Red Shoes" and "Appointment At High Noon," has penned another vehicle offered for the first time this month in Framingham, Mass. The play, "The Widows," deals with the life of St. Monica and is under the direction of Sister Mary Benjamin, S.M.S.M.

INDIVIDUALS interested in acting, directing, play-writing, scenic design, stagecraft, make-up, costumes, business, publicity or any other function allied to theatrical productions will be welcomed into the group. Such persons and those concerned with being patrons should send their name and address to The Catholic Theatre of Rochester, c/o Robert Smett, 136 Sherwood Ave., Rochester (19), N. Y.

Listen to: Father Joseph Mantel, C.S.S.R., on the Catholic Hour Sunday, at 2 p.m. on Station W2AM.

"You Can Have Peace," an address by the Rev. George H. Gulliflow of New York, Sunday at 10 a.m. over Station W2EC.

Family Theater Presentation of "Special Delivery Schuir" Wednesday at 9:30 p.m. on Station W2BO, Auburn.

Mrs. Richard T. Ford, daughter of the late Charles E. Barnes, prominent Rochesterian and a Knight of Columbus, spoke on the "Journal of the Air" program over Station W2BO, yesterday, as the "Citizen of the Day."

Priest's Jubilee To Honor Mother Seton

New York—(NY)—The Vice-Pastor of Mother Elizabeth Seton's cause for beatification will mark his silver jubilee of ordination in the church where she was received into the Catholic Faith.

The Rev. Salvador M. Burgio, C.M., will offer his jubilee Mass June 15 in St. Peter's Church here, where Mother Seton became a Catholic in 1805. St. Peter's also has the distinction of being the oldest parish in the New York Archdiocese.

Father Burgio was attached to St. Joseph's Church in Emmitsburg, Md., Eastern provincial headquarters of the Sisters of Charity.

Mother Launches Campaign To Improve TV Showings

Los Angeles—(NY)—A Catholic mother of five who brought a television set so she could supervise her children's TV fare has found that this is not enough.

MRS. ROBERT CRAMER and her husband bought the set because their children were coming home from visits to neighbors talking like Western bad men and too shocked to sleep.

The Cramers quickly guided the youngsters away from the more violent programs. They found the children actually preferred the more wholesome shows. The trouble was there were so few of the wholesome variety. And many of the best were dropped to make room for more blood and thunder.

SO MRS. CRAMER has joined with some 30 other Catholic women here to do something about it. The women devote spare time to evaluating radio and TV shows, particularly children's programs. Surveys of the programs have found 70 per cent of TV programs here for children are based on crime and violence.

Mrs. Cramer also is writing letters and postcards to stations and sponsors, praising good shows and protesting bad ones.
