Enroll For Radio Class At Jefferson

Enrollment for the next class of the Adult Radio and Television Unit operated by the Rochester Board of Education at Jefferson High School starting July 1, is now being taken.

The classes, conducted daily, prepare students as radio and television technicians, paying from $3,000 to $5,000 a year. Technical theory, shop experiments and construction are thoroughly covered in the field of electronics.

Broadcast stations, police, airlines, railroads and general industry all demand licensed radio operators, the announcement said. To enroll visit Jefferson High School, Backus St. at Saratoga Ave. or phone GLENWOOD 0893 and ask for Mr. Simpson for information.

Geneva DCCW Hears Pastor Dub Communism As 'Smog'

Geneva — Communism is like a "smog" upon civilization, according to Rev. Benedict Ehmman of Watkins Glen. He spoke before the first Saturday luncheon of Geneva Deaconsry, National Council of Catholic Women Saturday.

Father Ehmman addressed a luncheon meeting of 105 members in Newark Country Club. Twenty-one attended from Geneva unit.

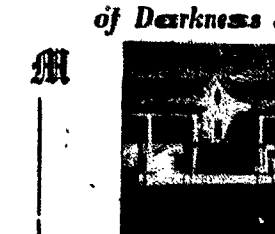

IN THE ABSENCE of the deaconry president, Mrs. Arthur T. McAvoy, the vice-president, Miss Elizabeth Kane of Geneva, was a speaker. Mrs. Richard Washburn was chairman, assisted by Mrs. Elizabeth Hayden and Mrs. William Noonan, who conducted the meeting.

Rev. Francis Waterstraat, moderator of the NCCW, who is celebrating his 22nd anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood, received a gift from the organization.

The first Saturday luncheon has as its objective "to honor Our Lady of Fatima and to pray for the conversion of Russia," said Father Ehmman, "but we must also pray for ourselves," he advised.

Referring to the "godlessness" of Russia, he said, "we must pray and do penance for them." Father Holleran and Father Connelly of Newark were guests at the luncheon.
