Msgr. Cowen To Observe Jubilee In Auburn Rites

Auburn — Rt. Rev. Msgr. William E. Cowen, S.T.D. will offer a solemn Mass of thanksgiving in St. Mary's Church, Auburn, on Sunday morning, June 22, at 11:00 o'clock in observance of the Golden Jubilee of his ordination to the priesthood.

Monsignor Cowen will celebrate his Mass on the same day and at the same hour that he said his first Solemn Mass in St. Mary's Church fifty years ago.

He will be assisted by Rev. Francis B. Burns of St. Bernard's Seminary, Rochester, deacon; Rev. James J. Sharpe of Lancaster, South Carolina, sub-deacon; Rev. Paul J. Lynch of St. Mary's Church, Master of Ceremonies; William H. Hickey of St. Bernard's Seminary, assistant Master of Ceremonies; Edward C. Driscoll and Richard E. Murphy, both of St. Bernard's Seminary, Acolytes.

MONSIGNOR COWEN

HIS EXCELLENCY Bishop Kearney will preach the sermon and preside at the throne. Deacons to the throne will be Rev. John C. O'Donnell, pastor of St. Patrick's Church, Dansville, a former boy of the parish, and Very Rev. Msgr. Dennis W. Hickey, secretary of the Diocesan Tribunal, Rochester, a former assistant pastor at St. Mary's Church.

The Mass will be broadcast over Station WMBO. Commentator for the Mass will be Rev. E. Leo McMannus, professor of English Literature at St. Bernard's Seminary, a former assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church. St. Mary's Choir will sing the Mass, "Cor Jesus," by Robert Turton with the "Ave Verum" by Gounod as the Offertory. This was sung at the first Solemn Mass of Monsignor Cowen on June 22, 1902.

The Holy Name Society will act as a guard of honor to the Bishop. A Color Guard will precede the Holy Name Society. The Fourth Degree, Knights of Columbus, will also act as guard of honor since Monsignor Cowen is the Faithful Friar of Auburn Assembly, Fourth Degree. The procession will move from the rectory at ten minutes before eleven o'clock as the Mass will commence at exactly eleven o'clock.

THE PARISH will hold a Testimonial Reception in honor of Monsignor Cowen on Thursday evening, June 26, in Lyceum Hall beginning at 8:00 o'clock. A half hour organ recital will precede the program beginning at 7:30.

The Priests who have been assistants at St. Mary's at any time during the past twenty years and also the parish boys who have been ordained priests will be guests of honor. The following will attend the reception: Very Rev. Msgr. James D. Cuffney, Very Rev. Dennis W. Hickey, Rev. Francis B. Burns, Rev. Leslie G. Whalen, Rev. Robert H. Fennessy, Rev. J. Joseph O'Connell, Rev. William D. Tobin, Rev. Richard T. Tormey, Rev. E. Leo McMannus, Rev. J. P. Norris, all former assistants; the Rev. Paul J. Lynch, Rev. Charles L. McCarthy, Rev. Robert J. Downs, present assistants; Rev. John C. O'Donnell, Rev. James C. Lane, Rev. William J. O'Brien, Rev. James J. Sharples, Rev. William F. White, former boys of the parish: Rev. Charles I. Sullivan of Auburn and Rev. Francis Connor of Houston, Texas.

A PAGEANT entitled "The Romance of a Priest" will be presented by the Children of St. Mary's School and Girls' Choir. The pageant is a story of a sacred romance that portrays God's grace and the miracles of the sanctuary; a story in festive pageantry that is told to celebrate the Golden Jubilee of Monsignor Cowen. It is being directed by Sister Marie Margaret.

Following the pageant St. Mary's Choir under the direction of Gerald T. Conroy, organist at St. Mary's, will sing:

"Send Out Thy Light" (Psalm XLIII and XX by Charles Gounod); "On Great Lone Hills" by Jean Sibellus; "Thanks Be To God," the Lyric is by P. J. O'Reilley, music by Stanley Dickson and the arrangement by Nobel Cain. The Testimonial will then be presented. Taking part in this program will be Frank J. Lesch, Rev. J. Joseph O'Connell, George F. Train and Edward J. Carroll. Following the singing of Holy God by the Assembly a reception will be held.

Mrs. Herbert J. House is general chairman of arrangements. She is being assisted by a large commitee with the following as co-chairmen: Mr. James E. O'Toole, Miss Mary Falvey and Miss Dorothy Fitzgerald. Edward J. Carroll is chairman of the Testimonial Committee.
