Wakayama, Japan — In Community Chest drive in this provincial capital, 7 Columbian Fathers in a 3-day street-corner campaign collected $1,200.00, mostly from pagans. It was 40 times what the local Buddhist monks collected during the same period.

Catholic Alumni, Trained Foes Of Reds, Bishop Says

A bulwark against totalitarian infiltration of education, such institutions as St. Bonaventure's turn out trained leaders, capable of combating atheistic Communism in their communities.

This declaration was made by His Excellency Bishop Kearney in St. Mary's Church, Sunday, where he celebrated Mass for 150 St. Bonaventure University alumni, fathers, sons and undergraduates.

THE BISHOP told the alumni that their Corporate Communion is a "perpetuating link between you and your university."

Assisting the Bishop were the Rev. Francis William Kearney, O.F.M., and the Rev. Canisius

IN MISSION WORKSHOP

First Novice To Be Professed At Monastery

Brother Idefonse Lundberg, O.S.B., first Novice at Mount Saviour Monastery, near Elmira, will make his simple temporary profession as a Benedictine Monk of Mount Saviour Monastery at the High Mass on Sunday morning at 9 o'clock — the Feast of St. Peter and Paul.

HE IS THE SON of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Lundberg of Bridgeport, Conn. Brother Idefonse made his Postulancy and part of his Novitiate at the Monastery, Saint Benoit du Lac, in the Province of Quebec, Canada, the balance being spent at Mount Saviour.

He was the first Novice to receive the Habit at Mount Saviour, on June 24, 1951. After three years in simple vows, he will be eligible for final solemn vows. The Very Rev. Damasus Winsten, O.S.B., Prior at Mount Saviour will preside at the ceremony of profession and receive Brother Idefonse's vows. An invitation to the public to be present at the ceremony has been extended by the monks.

CSMC Convention Workshop Calls 2 Aquinas Students

Two students of Aquinas Institute, Rochester, are among the first appointed to participate in workshop programs during the 15th national convention of the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade, to be held at the University of Notre Dame, August 21-24, according to the Rev. Henry J. Klockner, assistant national CSMC secretary, at the Crusade Castle in Cincinnati.

THE TWO WORKSHOP speakers are John O'Hara and Ronald Kujawa. They will lead in a discussion of financial support to the missions from Catholic high schools.

The CSMC is endeavoring to encourage a larger average contribution to the home and foreign missions from all its members, and will have the possibilities discussed by leaders chosen from several schools that have been outstanding in this department of Crusade activity.

In a letter to Rev. Arthur Looby, C.S.B., moderator of the Crusade at Aquinas Father

KC Boy Leaders' Class Theme Set

Training for leadership will be the general theme of the Summer School of Boy Leadership to be conducted at Niagara University on the week end of August 1-2-3 under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus Supreme Council Boy Life Bureau.

This intensive training course in youth leadership will be open to all Catholic men, 13 years of age or older, and the participant will be provided with a thorough indoctrination in all phases of Catholic youth work including: organization and operation of a parish youth program; planning activities for youth; financing the youth program; national youth serving agencies and their objectives, etc.

The financing of the course is on an actual cost basis of lodging and meals and all fees are payable to Niagara University. Advance registrations may be made through the Very Rev. Francis L. Meade, C.M., President, Niagara University, Niagara University Post Office, New York.
