Aquinas Grid Foe To Come With Win Record Says Jesuit

Opening opponent on the Aquinas Institute football schedule, on Sept. 28, St. Peter's High School of Jersey City, N. J., has a director of athletics who will be returning to his home town, to try to defeat one of his former schools at the Aquinas stadium.

The Rev. Maurice J. Miller, S.J., who is director of athletics at the Jesuit high school was formerly a boy in St. Michael's School, Rochester, and attended Old Cathedral High School, former-runner of Aquinas before entering the seminary.

HERE THIS WEEK on a visit, Father Miller was satisfied that his charges with whom he will come for the opener will give the Coach Jablonski squad a tussle. The Jersey team won seven out of eight games in 1951.

The Jersey team draws on an average of 20,000 on Thanksgiving Day and has set an attendance record of 26,000, Father Miller said. Their smallest crowd was 8,000. The traditional rival

Look and Listen

Father Keller of Christopher Movement fame, got Danny Thomas, Robert Young and Dennis Day to help him in "Let George Do It," a picture urging every eligible American, as a duty, to use his vote. Now he's coming out with another one about atomic energy in a Christopher appeal to "get in" and help turn a screw into a national blessing. You'd like to see these films? Distributors are World Films, 9756 Wilshire Blvd., Beverly Hills, California.

Again the Arena Players are using excellent talent in an "objectionable in part" piece, "Three Men On a Horse," playing at the Hoelzer St. Theater, has managed to be presented in all corners of the diocese this summer.

Robert Eride, business manager of the Catholic Theater of Rochester tells us that groups of organizations wishing to engage the Catholic Theater for presentations this fall should drop him a card at 1024 Monroe Ave. Appointments must be made with the group four weeks in advance of playing date.
