Will Benefits Two Church Institutions

A sum of $1,000 was bequeathed to Catholic institutions in the will of John E. Cosgrove, 85 Fulton Ave., who died June 17, 1952, probate of the will before Surrogate G. Robert Witmer revealed, this week.

Former Supreme Court Justice James P. B. Duffy is attorney and executor of the estate. Mr. Cosgrove willed $500 to St. Patrick's Church, Rochester, toward reduction of its debt and $500 to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. He left $100 to the pastor of St. Patrick's Church for Masses and bequeathed $500 to the Rochester Community Chest.

Writers Confer

—rededicating the organization to promotion of the ideals of the Christian family.

RAYMOND HAMMER of Piqua, O., was reelected president of the knights' organization and Mrs. Clara Renner of Columbus, Ohio, was again chosen head of the Auxiliary.

Reports of various committees at the Auxiliary sessions revealed that during the last year the organization financed the building of a chapel in India; educated a young man for the priesthood; furnished a hospital chapel; supplied cribs for an orphanage; sent more than 10,000 articles of clothing to war-ravaged countries; sponsored several large donations of blood to the Red Cross, and its members were instrumental in getting homes for a number of displaced persons.

Fred J. Schoettle, Te Deum International president, at the convention banquet complimented the group on its high purpose of "infusing into human society a broader and higher morality."

Holy Ghost Parish Picnic Set In Coldwater, Aug. 18, 19

Tuesday and Wednesday, August 19 and 20 are the dates chosen for the Coldwater picnic to benefit Holy Ghost Church on Coldwater Road, according to the Rev. Albert J. Geiger, pastor.

A home cooked chicken dinner "with all the fixin's which has featured the picnic for more than 30 years, will be served from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Patrons will be served numerically, first come first served.

A country auction of live stock, vegetables, furniture and antiques "with the inimitable Uncle Ed Hogan, auctioneer," will be an added feature.

Carnival events and games of skill will keep the guests well entertained. Father Geiger is honorary chairman of the picnic. General committee is composed of: Frank Bubel, Chet Nichols, Art Briener, Jerome Shaughnessy, John Puffer, Ray Bosseler and Ray Sullivan and the Mesdames: Martina Schmitz, Alma Redick, Nora Knoepfler, Genevieve Statt, Marie Hockley, Mary Briener, Marie West, Magdalen Jacobs, Millie Kauffman and Ann Wasko.

Mrs. Ruth Kohlmeier is chairman of the publicity committee.

Cana Institute Set

Second Annual Eastren Cana Institute will be held at Seton Hall University, South Orange, New Jersey on Tuesday and Wednesday, September 9 and 10 next, under the sponsorship of the Cana Committee of the Archdiocese of Newark.

Holy Family Theater Group Enjoys Outing

About 100 members and their families of the Holy Family Theatre gathered at Mendon Ponds on Sunday, July 13, for their annual picnic.

Games, of interest to young and old, were played throughout the day, as the committee members prepared lunch. Canoeing and swimming were enjoyed by some of the younger set. The evening was highlighted with group singing.

Helen Schramel, assisted by Rita Tota, was responsible for the successful day.

Plans for the Theatre's new play, to be held in the Fall, will be discussed at a meeting of the Play-Reading Committee during the next week.

of the outstanding works of the Catholic Daughters.

The Rev. Alfred A. Schneider, War Relief Services NCWC delegate overseas thanked the organization for its overseas relief program.

Since 1945 the daughters have been conducting an overseas relief program that includes services to more than 2,600 families on a personal basis, support to 700 expellee priests ministering to thousands of expelled families in Western Germany, and on the home front have helped in resettlement of displaced families.

A MESSAGE WAS read from Pope Pius XII which cited the CDA for its "zealous apostolate of Catholic womanhood—of which the world stands so much in need."

The Share the Faith Department which observed its silver jubilee, this year, launched its jubilee year with a crusade for the beatification of Elizabeth Bayley Seton.

According to Miss Florence M. Winter, Washington, D.C. national department chairman of 25 years, it was as an act of thanksgiving that she dedicated this year to Mother Seton. She said this was because in the days prior to her conversion to the Catholic Faith, it was members of Mother Seton's religious order, the Sisters of Charity, who helped her.

Miss Frances M. Maier of Kane, Pa. was reelected Supreme Regent with her entire staff.

Picnic Planned By St. Michael Alumni

Alumni of St. Michael's College, Toronto are planning to hold a family picnic during the months of August. All former students interested are asked to get in touch with Fred Blum, Hugh Marks, George Gargano or Art Scheid.

Refreshments will be served and games conducted for the children and grown ups. The alumni are hoping to make this an annual affair.

Former students are asked to make the contact if they find it impossible to attend so they may be placed on the mailing list.
