Sampson Chaplain Honored, Lauds Others' Aid in Korea

Sampson Air Force Base, N. Y. — (NC) — A priest chaplain presented with a commendation ribbon here for his service in Japan and Korea said that "others served God and country better than I."

The Rev. (Capt.) Gerald F. McCarthy, O.S.B., told of a technical sergeant, the Korean Benedictines, and missionaries in Korea. "The sergeant — Tech, Sergeant Mousel of Long Beach, California — was my assistant with the (42nd) Bomb Wing," Father McCarthy said. "He was the man who carried through our clothing drive for Japanese and Korean orphans.

"And he was our 'mail man' — he traveled continuously to the various units and civilian parishes with messages, money, food and clothing. He carried the burden."

FATHER MCCARTHY said he met members of the war-disrupted Korean Benedictine Order through the Rev. Patrick O'Connor, Columbian missionary who is a correspondent for N.C.W.C. News Service.

At that time the monks, seminarians and nuns were homeless — "their Wonsan monastery and church, the finest in Korea, had been burned to the ground by the communists," the Air Force chaplain said. "Their Bishop had died in a communist prison camp."

"Members of the wing helped the Order with more than $500 worth of money, food and clothing monthly. Despite this, one of the monks — 29-year-old Brother Isadore — died as a result of a weakened condition.

"THE MONKS, seminarians and nuns are now reestablished and doing well in Taegu."

Father McCarthy praised the Columbian missionaries who are working in South Korea, and the Maryknoll Sisters who conduct a clinic at Pusan. "The Maryknolls distributed the clothes which the 42nd Bomb Wing gathered for the Korean poor," he reported.

The chaplain, who is a Benedictine, received the commendation ribbon for service with the 42nd when it was based in Japan and Korea from November 1950 to March 1952. He is entitled to wear the Presidential Unit Citation and three battle stars. His parents live in Holyoke, Mass.
