

Two July Events Scheduled By Auburn Council, K. of C.

Auburn — Auburn Council 207, Knights of Columbus has scheduled two events for its late July program. The first Friday Club sponsored by the Council will welcome woman and children as well as men to its first Friday Supper August 1.

Supper will be served in the lawn back of the home from five until seven o'clock. The preparation of the supper and serving of it is being supervised by the Ladies' Auxiliary of which Mrs. Laura Murphy is president. Following the supper the group will adjourn to the clubhouse to hear the customary first Friday talk.

The annual Family Picnic will be held on the grounds, Sunday, July 27. Raymond Glancy is in charge of the afternoon's activities and is being assisted by Mrs. Murphy and the Auxiliary.

Experience — Some people speak from experience — others from experience don't speak.

Boating A Feature At Camp Columbus

BOYS RETURN from a boating trip at Camp Columbus on Owasco Lake. They are greeted by from left Elmer Schmidt and Roy Booth, counselors and students of St. Bernard's Sem-

Camp Columbus Attracts 60 Happy Youngsters Per Week

Auburn — Each week of the months of July and August finds 60 happy young people at Camp Columbus on the east shore of Owasco Lake. The camp is part of the extensive youth program carried out by St. Alphonsus Church, Auburn, of which the Rev. Frederick G. Straub is pastor.

From July 29 to August 9 the camps will be boys ranging in age from seven years to the end of grammar school. The Rev. Clarence W. Gardner is camp director for the boys encampment and is assisted by a staff of counselors from St. Bernard's and St. Andrew's Seminaries.

Girls from the age of seven years to the end of high school will take over the camp from August 10 until August 30. The Rev. Robert A. Meng is camp director for the girls with the counseling staff composed of Mrs. Frank Collins and Nazareth College students. The Rev. Andrew W. Teuschel is assistant camp director.

Camp Columbus, a member of the Camp Association of America, offers a complete camping program plus ample opportunity for prayer and religious instruction. Each day's program starts with attendance at Mass in the chapel located on the camp grounds. The Mass is recited

Geneva Couple Feted On Jubilee

Geneva — A surprise anniversary party was arranged Sunday, July 13, by their daughters, in honor of the 20th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Church, RD 3, Geneva-St. There were 70 present.

A three-tiered wedding cake was the central feature of the table decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. Church were married July 14, 1912, in St. Stephen's Church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John Guy.

The Church's have three daughters, the Misses Virginia, Shirley and Patricia.

Mr. Church is engaged in the wallpaper and paint business on Exchange St.

Guests were present from Geneva, Waterloo, Canandaigua, Buffalo and Syracuse.

Geneva Hostesses Welcome 10 Children From New York

Geneva — Hot and tired from a long train trip from New York City ten little Fresh Air youngsters climbed down from the train at Lehigh Valley Station Friday, July 19, to be greeted by their hostesses.

The weary little group had been riding all day, one of the hottest days of summer. Add to that the fact that the train was forty minutes late.

Mopping anxious brows and waiting patiently for the youngsters were the hostesses who will entertain them for two weeks.

THE CHILDREN are coming under the auspices of the Geneva Zonta Club. Mrs. Nora Cochran is chairman of the project.

Fifteen children were expected to arrive but only ten showed up. The others came on Monday.

The only boy in the whole contingent will spend his vacation on an area farm. Two of the little girls will go to Stanley R. D.; two to Phelps R. D. and the others will be entertained in local homes.

If there are sufficient invitations, another group of Fresh Air Levels will be brought here Aug. 4. Anyone who would like to invite a child may contact Mrs. Cochran, phone 6325.

Guild Board Members Feted By President

Auburn — Mrs. Frederick J. Welch, president of Mercy Guild, entertained members of the Board of the Guild at her summer home on Owasco Lake Monday evening.

Following a picnic supper a short business meeting was held at which reports were given of a rummage sale held in June. Plans were outlined for early autumn activities.

Assisting Mrs. Welch in arranging the party were Mrs. J. Harold Wright, Mrs. John O'Connell, Mrs. Howard St. Denis, Mrs. Woodrow Dayton and Mrs. John Welch.

Summer School Held For 54 At Clifton

Clifton Springs — The Summer school of religion for children of St. Felix Church concluded Friday morning. A short school session was held followed by 45 minutes of cartoon films, shown by the Rev. Emmet Dougherty, pastor. The children were also served ice cream.

Fifty-four children were registered for the two-week summer school which was conducted by Sister Francis Gerard of Rochester, who stayed at St. Francis deSales and Sister Florence Lotzke, Rochester, who stayed at St. Stephen's, Geneva, during the two-week course of instruction.

Transportation for the Sisters, from the convents in Geneva to Clifton Springs, was furnished by Miss Lena Cowley, Mrs. James Sommers, Mrs. Ellis Weld Jr. and Mrs. Frank DeMarco.

Community Savings Gaining Depositors

Figures just released by the Savings Bank Association of the State of New York for the six months period from January 1932 through June 1932 show the Community Savings Bank to be among the 25 fastest growing savings banks in the State. Its twenty-first place, Community showed a deposit gain of over 4% million dollars for the six months period for a percentage gain of 5.42%.

The total deposit gain for the 130 savings banks in the state for the six months period was $503,400,000 or 4.13%.
