Hollywood In Focus

By WILLIAM H. MOORING

Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz aren't going to their studio these days. It's flooded with mail. See me every body wants to know why they stopped their "I Love Lucy" show through the summer.

"Nothing on TV these Monday evenings, writes one woman. "Too bad if it's an account of the new baby," sympathized another.

"I can't write to all these good people," Lucille says, "but I want them to know we think it's wonderful about the baby. Little Lucy Desi's is just one year old and our next bundle should be here by New Year's. What's any family like yours without a family anyway?"

Blessings suddenly poured on this couple. They once had fair breaks in films. Then they just coasted. Lucille did a radio program. Out of it grew the "I Love Lucy" television series which they put on film, six weeks ahead of time.

IT WENT like a prairie fire. It has topped the American Research poll in New York for five consecutive months; holds first place on the Hooper poll and rates 72, the highest, on the Los Angeles Teleguide rating. It's well ahead of other popular family shows like Burns and Allen.

The Nelson report months ago showed that 11,055,000 homes see "I Love Lucy" every week. That pans out at over 30,000,000 people a time.

Now the movie people, who didn't think much of Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz, want them back for films.

They just can't turn out enough of this family entertainment which ought to convince the Hollywood movie people that public tastes are on the up-beat and that too many sordid "drama" films provide one reason why the movie box-office is so "beat up" these days.

MANY HAVE asked me whether Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz are Catholics. Well, Desi is and Lucille isn't although he tells me "she has nothing against it; interested in fact," Desi, Jesuit educated in Cuba, first took Lucille as his wife by civil ceremony, November 30, 1940. For nine years they hoped "in vain" for a family.

On June 19, 1949, they were married by Father John Hurley at Our Lady of the Valley, Church, Canoga Park. Within the year Lucille lost her first baby. Then last July, little Lucy Desi-arrived. It seems she will have a brother or sister come January.

"Some people may wonder," he told me, "but to me there's only one explanation. Our marriage in the Church meant we had been blessed."

Clara Bow Film The younger generation that has only read the hectic days of the prohibition period, will have a chance to see Clara Bow, the official "it" girl, as an authentic flapper when Dancing Mothers is shown at the Dryden this Saturday, July 26, at 3:30 p. m. and Sunday, July 27, at 2:30 and 4:00 p. m.

Look and Listen

NBC has decided to schedule the latest Christopher movie, "Government Is Your Business," on TV, just after the Democratic Convention in Chicago. TV officers felt that it is most timely and forceful in emphasizing the moral responsibility of the individual citizen toward government.

Father Keller's whole movement is based on the power and glory of the individual with his slogan, "It is better to light one candle than to curse the darkness." He has won the support of Hollywood's finest talent, of all races and creeds. The film is said to hold its power in its simplicity and of the stuff that leaves a lump in one's throat.

Black-faced Minstrels and some TV and radio shows have singled out the Negro for a lot of uncalculated ridicule and embarrassing caricatures. This form of entertainment tags a whole group of our fellow men as buffoons and clowns while perpetuating the white man's hardened refusal to equal justice under God and before the law.

No minority likes to have its members caricatured in a farce that disgraces their whole nation or ethnic group, and certainly portraying the Negro as a chicken-stealing, wife-beating, razor-slashing rogue is bearing false witness against thousands of holy, God-fearing, upright Negro Christians.

The "Going My Way" director of the famous Paulist Choirs of Chicago, the Rev. Eugene F. O'Malley, will celebrate the silver jubilee of his priesthood July 31. The widely known choir's following was broadened recently throughout United States and Canada by their appearance at the National Republican Convention, broadcast by all radio and TV networks. A flood of fan mail poured in from all sections of the country.

The sweet, clear soprano tone of Father O'Malley develops among his boys has been described by Felix Borowski, noted composer and critic, as "an ethereal purity not often to be heard in this country."

"I Love Lucy," the popular family TV show, begins filming again August 1, ready for the

Don't Waste Your Time! The Lyric Circus up to this point has offered excellent entertainment. However, the next presentation, "Annie Get Your Gun" (July 29-Aug. 3), is censured for misuse of the name of God and profanity throughout the dialogue.

Winooski Park, Vermont — Brennan Moore will direct "Jenny Kissed Me" at the St. Michael's Playhouse and repeat the role he created when the comedy was first written.

The Jeanne Kerr comedy will be given by Players through Saturday, July 26, at 8:30 p. m.

MOORE first played the role of Owen Parkside when "Jenny" had its premiere at Catholic University in Washington. He went to Broadway where the comedy starred Leo G. Carroll and he has done both radio and television versions. This will be Moore's only appearance this season. He is directing the entire series of plays.

Bill Graham will be seen as the irascible old priest who doesn't want teen-aged Jenny, played by Marilyn Hurley, underfoot in the rectory. Her Aunt and his housekeeper, Jeanne Davis, badgers him into letting her stay for what he thinks is overnight.

OTHER company veterans who will be seen in "Jenny Kissed Me" are Ted Doyle, Mary Alexander, Jill Leahy, Joan Kendall, and Dick Armstrong.

Newcomers from among the ranks of the apprentices will be Mary Ellen MacArthur, Mary Pat Deley, Erin Gibbons, Marian Ledushka and Rosalind Coleman.
