Crucifix Society's Outing Slated At Precious Blood

Second Annual Picnic of the Crucifix Society will be held Sunday, August 3 at Most Precious Blood Church picnic grounds, Lexington Ave. and Stenson Street beginning at 2 p. m.

The day's observance will begin with a parade and celebration in the church at 10:30 a. m. A High Mass in honor of Christ crucified will be offered.

BEGINNING AT 2 p. m. and continuing until 10 p. m. a concert will be given by Antinorini's Band.

Principal speaker at a reception of societies and honored guests will be Rep. Kenneth B. Keating. He will be introduced by Attorney Stephen S. Joy.

man; Paolo Mazzeo, secretary; Sam Palazzolo, treasurer. The Crucifix Society was reorganized on April 8, 1951, and has sought to join in helping counteract the forces that prevail against the Church in this era.

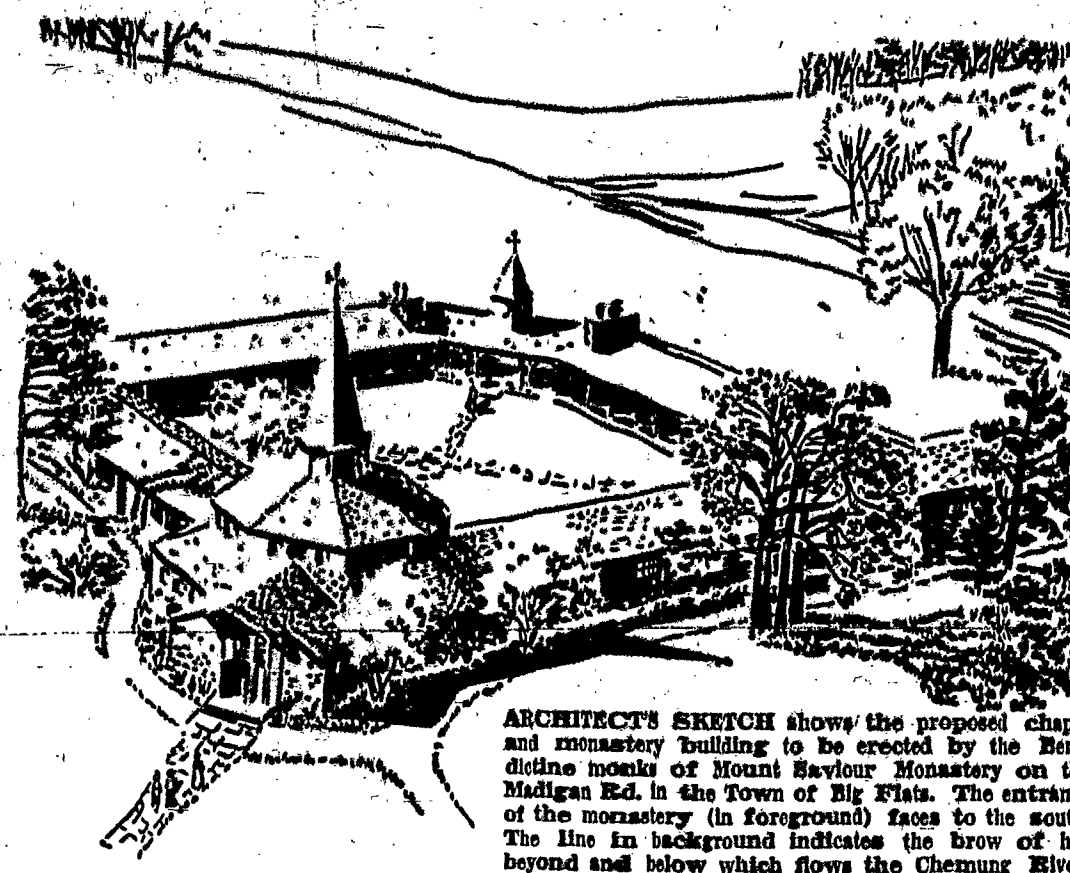

Michalski Post To Hold Webster Outing Melvin Michalski Post 1823, American Legion will hold its 7th Annual Family Picnic on Sunday, August 3 at Hickory Grove, Webster.

The Ladies Auxiliary will conduct games for the children. Feature of the day for the children will be pony rides.

Prizes will be awarded the winners of events. Chairman Victor Szatkowski predicts that this will be one of the best family picnics in recent years.

Michalski Post is also sponsoring the Annual American Legion Golf Tournament this year at Le-Roy Country Club on August 16. Details of this will be given out at the picnic.
