Geneva K. Of C. Home Blessed

The Rev. Edward K. Ball, pastor of St. Francis de Sales parish, was celebrant at the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament which closed the program.

Mayor W. Erie Rogers, a guest at the dedication program in the new home, spoke briefly, expressing his congratulations. Mayor Rogers praised the program of the Knights of Columbus in Geneva and, in behalf of the community, extended good wishes to the organization on its entry into the new home.

JOHN MAHONEY, president of the Home Corporation of the Knights of Columbus, presided during the dedication. He then turned the building over to the Grand Knight Thomas Gallagher. Both members then expressed their thanks to all who had helped in any way in the advancement of the opening of the new home.

Arthur T. McAvoy was principal speaker, reviewing in part the many accomplishments of the organization. "TODAY MARKS an epochal milestone in the 54 years of progress of Geneva Council No. 272 of the Knights of Columbus," he said.

Mr. McAvoy also paid high tribute to the many men "who have contributed so much to the growth of our order." Their names, he said, will be "forever be enshrined in our records."

Referring to the challenge of present-day conditions in the world, he said: "Today every Christian, and in particular the Catholic laymen must face the situation with no thought of compromise. No matter what his con-

Mass Honors Five French Religious Killed By Gestapo

Paris—(NC)—Church and State have solemnly honored the memory of five French Religious who, eight years ago, were tortured and killed by the Nazi Gestapo (secret police).

The five—two priests and three Brothers of the Oblates of Mary Immaculate—were executed in the garden of the Oblate novitiate near Fontainebleau on July 23, 1944. A Gestapo informer had previously denounced them as having knowledge of the hiding places of ammunition for the French underground resistance.

AT THE PLACE of their execution, a memorial has been erected in the form of an altar where Mass was offered by the Carmelite Father Louis of the Trinity, who before he entered the religious life was Admiral Thierry d'Argenlieu and chief of staff of the French navy. Among those attending the Mass were many Oblates who witnessed the shocking events eight years ago. Those executed were the Fathers Gilbert and Plat, and Brothers Cuny, Perier and Niot.

Archbishop Frederic C. Lamy of Sens and Bishop Georges Delory of Meaux attended the ceremony, together with Georges Bidault, leader of the resistance movement during the war, and many generals and members of parliament. President Vincent Auriol was represented by Claudius Petit, minister of reconstruction in the French cabinet.

THE ALTAR, topped by a tall stone cross, is built against a wall bearing the names of the five victims and the inscription: "Greater love than this no one has, that one lay down his life for his friends." (John 15, 13). After the Mass all went to the graves of the five heroes in the novitiate garden where the French Journalist Remy Roue—
