LAST YEAR'S figures were 18 per cent offensive for domestic and 41 per cent for foreign movmost 53 per cent of the foreign les, Msgr. Masterson said, and incompleté reports indicate that this trend toward "moral improvement" is continuing in 1952. However, he warned the delegates that "these figures do not give us any reason to relaxmuch remains to be done."

Expressing regret that confusion had arisen over what constitutes sacrilege, Msgr. Masterson assured the Catholic women that they could rely upon the judgments of reviewers for the Federation's Motion Picture Depart. ment, who screen movies for the Legion of Decency.

"HAVING RECEIVED their training in religious as well as secular, subjects," he said, "they know what blasphemy is and what sacrilege is. They can define each with accuracy. They can recognize it in life or on the screen. When it is detected on the screen, it will be so labelled, and you and the public will-be so in-

Catholic University Opens

Marriage Counseling Center Washington-(NC)-A Marriage Counseling Center wil

be conducted this year by the sociology department of the Holy Family Parish; Saturday, Catholic University of America here.

Its director, Dr. Alphonse H.

Clemens, said that Catholic Uni in marriage education, such as versity is the only Catholic Uni-teachers, family life directors and versity in the world to offer writers on marriage and family specialized training in marriage topics. It will train marriage room, but also by supervised counseling experience, in the Centér.

Students who enroll for the courses must fulfill all the requirements for marriage counseling as laid down by the Marriage Counseling Committee of the National Council of Family Relations and the American Association of Marriage Counselors.

THE ONE YEAR course offers an A.M. degree in preparation for marriage and family education; two years of graduate study result in an A.M. degree in marriage counseling.

Dr. Clemens stated that the raining available at the Center s based on the theory that an effective marriage counselor needs to have a broad training in all aspects of married living and in the technique of counselin rather than the narrowl; specialized type of education and training now offered by the existing professions.

University Seeks FM Station Permit

Washington - (RNS) - The Federal Communications Communications Commission announced that it has received an application from the trustees of the University of Santa Clara, Cal. for as permit to construct a non-commercial educational FM Station.
