Father Looby Named To Direct Football Promotion At Aquinas Institute In 1952

Appointment of the Rev. Arthur Looby, C.S.B., of Aquinas Institute faculty as director of football promotions at the boys' high school, Dewey Ave., is announced today by the Very Rev. John H. O'Loane, C.S.B., newly appointed principal.

Success of Father Looby in directing similar activities at the school and in managing the magazine drive last year was given as reasons for his selection. The Aquinas Mission Unit led all Catholic high schools in the county with a contribution of more than $20,000 to the magazine drive.

The students inspired by Father Looby's promotional ability last year, broke a national record in selling more than $70,000 worth of magazines.

Planning the coming season opening on Sept. 23 with St. Peter's High of Jersey City, Father Looby has selected a men's committee to assist him.

NAMED ARE: Art Barnam, Frank Blonzi, Don Blanchard, Dean Coffey, Joe Connelly, John Degan, Harold Dorsey, Frank Dugan, Jerry Flynn, Jack Hedger, Tom Hughes, Jim Hubert, Jerry Hahn, Cy Krenzer, Charlie Kivell, Max McCarthy, Charles Mirguet, Fire Chief John Slatery, Frank Temmerman and Jack Urquhart.

Season tickets are on sale at the school for the six home games. Any of the above men may be contacted for information on tickets or any phase of the football program.

Seeking positions on the Aquinas football team, more than 200 boys gave up the Labor Day holiday to turn out for the first practice on the school grounds.

THE COACHING staff headed by Ray Jablonski worked mainly on conditioning and fundamentals. With only 12 freshmen returning from last year's team, the squad will be reduced by 50 percent.
