

GOD LOVE YOU!

By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

THE Communists believe that the Holy Father is the Vicar of Christ on earth. They do not believe in him with faith in order to love as we do; they believe as the demons in hell, in order to destroy. For that reason they threaten, persecute and torture a Catholic until he denies his belief in the Holy Father.

Very few of the Chinese, either laity or priests, have broken down under the diabolical brain-washings. In a Western Province of China, the Vicar General was alarmed at reports that in one of the parishes the Communists were making progress. He called in the priest and said: "Dear Father, let us with all our heart stay with the Holy Father; if we are with him then only we are with Christ." The country priest said: "I am ready to swear before the altar that I never denied the Holy Father. If I am lying, God can take my life." The good-hearted Vicar General was satisfied with his loyal affirmation of his faith and he asked the priest to read the nine o'clock Mass the next morning which was Sunday. Not finding the rural priest in the sacristy at nine, the Vicar General went to his room and knocked; no answer, he then forced open the door—the priest was dead on his bed.

Moral: Thank God for your faith... Sustain it daily for trial by self-denial to help spread it in the missions. The Society for the Propagation of the Faith is the Holy Father's own Mission Society, and now for the added reason that he is the test of our faith. Eliminate a luxury, cut into your capital and send it as a sacrifice in the name of Our Lord and His Blessed Mother.

The whole moral tone of America is being lifted by the growing sacrificial spirit for the Missions as exemplified by the following to whom we send a God Love You. To Mrs. A.J.B. for the $10 saved by going coach instead of First Class. . . God Love You to T. L. who writes, "I am sending my first dollar made on my paper route and instead of saving for my future I am sending it to be used now!" . . . God Love You to Mrs. L.K.K. who earned $3 making baby clothes and asks that the money help some mission baby. . . God Love You to Mr. and Mrs. J. M. who sent a promised $10 to the missions in thanksgiving for the favor of finding an apartment. . . God Love You to Mr. and Mrs. J.D.D. who celebrated their ninth wedding anniversary and "decided to forego the anniversary dinner and make a $10-sacrifice to the Holy Father's Missions." . . . God Love You to C. F. who is five years old and sent in 25c as her sacrifice for the missions. She gave up a package of gum and two ice cream cones. . . God Love You to Mrs. H. G. R. for $15 which she originally intended to use for a much needed pocketbook and pair of shoes. . . God Love You to Mrs. C. P. who saved and sent $16 for the Missions by giving up two cups of coffee a day for a month and by going without a new bedroom rug. . . God Love You to K. G. who sent $10 and the wish to share her college allowance with someone who needs it. . . God Love You to M. K. who held a carnival in his backyard and sent the profit of $7 to the Missions. . . God Love You to V. R. who writes "My friend and I gave up going to the movies for six weeks so as to send the enclosed $8 for the Holy Father's Missions. . . God Love You to Mr. R. N. P. who won $55 and sent the whole amount to the Missions. . . God Love You to the Sunday school students of S. A. who write, "We wish to help boys and girls in other lands. Enclosed you will find $12 to be used as you think best." . . . God Love You, P. F. who says, "I am 11 years old and would like to send six weeks of my allowance ($1.50) to help some poor little girl."

Remind yourself to pray for the Missions by using a World Mission Rosary. You will recognize each of the five continents by the particular color on each decade. At your request and a $2 offering for the Holy Father's Missions, we will send you a World Mission Rosary blessed by us.

Graduates Gain What Freshmen Hope For, Nazareth College Survey Shows

By WALT KOLESNIK

A news item in last week's Courier-Journal stating that Nazareth College was preparing to begin classes Sept. 17 with the largest freshman enrollment in its history prompted a number of Catholic parents in the Rochester diocese to ask: "Why are all these girls going to college? What good will it do them? Why Nazareth, rather than a bigger, secular university?"

Such questions can, perhaps, be better answered by students and alumnae than by any member of the faculty or administration.

FOR THE PAST two years, at least, freshmen have been asked to write on such subjects as "What I Hope to Get Out of College" or "Why I Came to Nazareth" for their English composition classes.

Seniors and graduates were asked what they gained as a result of four years in the diocesan women's college. The informal surveys reveal that graduates feel they actually did gain what freshmen said they hoped to gain. The gains can be summarized under three headings: academic, social and religious.

The academic goal usually included training for a particular occupation or profession—teaching, social work, nursing, a secretarial position, medical technology, etc. The high percentage of placements in these and other fields indicates that this goal has been met.

STUDENTS FELT, however, that being merely a good teacher or a good nurse was not enough. Freshmen wanted, and alumnae said they got, a broad cultural background in literature, history, science, philosophy and theology that would enable them better to understand the world they live in and to adjust themselves to it; and the development of their intellects so that they could reason through any problem to its satisfactory solution.

Their social goal included such things as the ability to get along with all sorts of people, to live, work, play and pray together in a spirit of Christian cooperation and self-sacrifice, and the lasting ties of friendship and mutual influence for good of one student on another.

The development of piety and self-assurance at dances, parties, club meetings and other social gatherings was also frequently mentioned.

THE STUDENTS showed a marked degree of maturity in numbering religious benefits among those to be gained at a Catholic college. Realizing that a college diploma is not a passport to heaven, they stressed the importance of knowing their religion well so that they can explain and defend it when the need arises. But they feel it is even more important for the person to understand his beliefs so he is able to apply them to everything he does.

Students have pointed out that a Godless education is a distorted, incomplete one, since education is supposed to lead the student to the truth, and God is the author of all truth, whether it be in the field of history, science or anything else.

The academic and social gains may help answer the first two questions raised by parents—why girls are going to college and what good it will do them.

THE RELIGIOUS gains may help answer the third question—why they select Nazareth College specifically. But students and alumnae have more to say in reply to this last query. They mention Nazareth's comparatively low tuition, made possible by the living endowment of the Sisters of St. Joseph and the dedicated self-sacrifice on the part of the lay faculty; the close and friendly student-faculty relations and the personal concern of teachers and administration for each student; the "one big happy family" spirit which is possible only in a smaller institution.

Students and alumnae have little patience with the argument, sometimes advanced, that higher education is a waste of time and money for women since many of them will marry shortly after graduation and never "use" their education.

Such people, they say, are forgetting the social and religious benefits as well as some of the academic ones. Furthermore, students are realistic enough to realize that not all of them will marry, and that some of them who are married may be faced for one reason or another with the necessity of working. They want to be prepared.

The majority do want to get married and raise a family. Records show that this will be the case. These women are convinced that a Catholic college education will help make them better wives and mothers.

As one student put it, "When you educate a man, you educate an individual; but when you educate a woman, you educate a family."

1,000 Delegates

Archbishop Thomas A. Conolly (right) and Seattle will be the host to the 1,000 delegates attending the 26th national convention of the National Council of Catholic Women, in Seattle, September 22-24 and will give the closing address. Kathleen Norziz, (left) of Palo Alto, Calif., would author, will address the banquet meeting.

New Immigrant Quota Offered

Cleveland—(NC)—The present immigration quota system, based on national origins, should be scrapped.

Instead, immigrants could be admitted according to the number of native Americans in this country, perhaps one new immigrant for every 1,000 Americans.

THESE VIEWS were expressed in a newspaper interview here by the Rev. Aloysius J. Wycislo, assistant executive director of War Relief Services—National Catholic Welfare Conference.

"The present quota system is unfair, undemocratic, un-Christian and unsound in the light of the present United States position on the international front," he said. "This country, on a planned resettlement basis, could absorb a larger number of immigrants than the current numerical limits allowed under present laws."

Nursing School Israelis Plan In Monastery

Jerusalem—(RNS)—The Israeli government has decided to establish a school for nurses in the annex of the Carmelite Monastery at Haifa, which was evacuated during the war in Palestine.

The monastery was confiscated three months ago following the failure of protracted purchase negotiations between Roman Catholic authorities and the government.

Although no appeal was made against the confiscation order, Church officials are expected to protest the latest action by the Israelis because a private housing corporation had outbid the government's original offer for the monastery building.

A Serious Charge
When some men act like live wires, it's usually their friends and neighbors who are shocked.

Nuns Remove Crosses To Teach Public School

Hawkesbury, Ont. —(NC)—Two Catholic nuns are among the 16 teachers employed to teach at the new public high school here.

The nuns have agreed not to wear crosses while teaching because of a provincial regulation which stipulates that religious insignia is not permitted in a classroom.

Indians Urge Catholic Medical College
Calcutta, India —(NC)—The establishment of a Catholic College in India was declared a "must" by the Catholic Hospital Association at its annual meeting here.

Need for the college, the association declared, arises from the fact that fewer and fewer Catholics are gaining admission to the government medical colleges and those admitted receive no training in Catholic medical ethics.

OLD FASHION remedies will not correct visual defects

Yes, Grandma may have known say number of remedies for common eye troubles. A carrot a day plus yeast, a certain eye wash, or eye exercises would correct whatever "ailed your eyes." The only way to correct common eye troubles such as nearsightedness, farsightedness, and astigmatism is by a dependable eye examination. Bausch's are equipped to give you a thorough, accurate eye examination and prompt service because they maintain a staff of seven registered, experienced optometrists. Visit Bausch's soon.

NOT A CLEAR PICTURE?

No, it is not, but let us tell you the story. These are refugee children, victims of the Palestine war. If the picture is not clear, neither is the end of all the misery. So, we do beg you to help us feed and clothe these children. Your $10 gift will provide a precious food package or support one of these children for a whole month. With the winter coming, we already shudder at the thought of trying to care for 25,000 homeless children. Won't you please help them?

GREAT MATILDA
Matilda of Tuscany was the glory of the Church and the world 800 years ago. But we are begging for Sister Matilda, a novice with the Sisters of St. Joseph in the viceroyalty of India. Can you make her your adopted daughter, giving her the $300 needed for her two years' training?

ROSE MARY
This is the lovely name of the Superior of the Sisters of the Desolata who care for our lepers in India. She pleads for a medical kit, costing $75, but any gift to the DAMIEN LEPROSARIUM will help her. She now has nine centers for these outcasts. Won't you help her and them?

SPECIAL PLEA
We hope you will not forget Monsignor Kirk American priest whom the Holy Father has placed in charge of refugees from beyond the Iron Curtain. He begs for Miss offerings for his poor priests.

BISHOP'S BOUQUET
Bishop James Ghebretens of Amara, Eritrea, asks us to send him $50 to provide a set of Mass vestments for one poor missionary and $40 for a chalice for another. Your bouquet?

THEIR ANGELS
Father George, who guards our little orphans at St. Mary's in Trichur, India, sends us a very pitiful description of their needs, begging us to ask Near East friends to remember them again. How much any gift—$1, $10, $100—will draw down smiles from the angels who see their Father's face.

NO HOLIDAY
Death takes no holiday. That is why so many souls spiritually against death by sending offerings for Gregorian Masses. Our "suspense card" guarantees you that Near East priests will offer them after your death. Sinless gifts also bind our poor forever to you with bonds of love.

CLOISTERED CAMELS: Many indeed have we of these sacred ones amid the world's turmoil. The least we can do is help these consecrated Sisters to buy their necessities in our behalf. This week we beg a mile for the cloistered Camel at Kady Kay, Turkey, the only one in that land.

CHAPEL A MONTH?
Ah, this would be paradise for our Near East missionaries. A chapel costs $2,000 and rare are such gifts, but you can still delight our hearts by giving an offering to our CHAPEL-OF-THE-MONTH CLUB. The Lord will do the rest for us.

MY SORROW
During this month of Our Lady's Sorrows, can you give $60 for a special crucifix to be placed in the chapel at Toulon, Egypt. For a year its Franciscan pastor has been sending it, please for help. Can you help him through the Mother of Sorrows?

UNMOLT THE WILL: Yes, if our last will does not include God's poor.
