Show of Old, New Fashions Set By St. Vincent's Group

A Fashion Show will be held by the Rosary Society of St. Vincent de Paul's Church, Churchville on Thursday, Oct. 2 at 8:00 o'clock in Doud Post, American Legion Home on Buffalo Road.

The E. W. Edwards Company will present the show and Miss Sally Franklin will comment on period and modern fashions.

MRS. FRANCIS EHRMENTRAUT is general chairman for the occasion. Other chairmen include: Mrs. Charles Schusterbauer, charge of tables; Mrs. Leo Krueze, refreshments; Mrs. Clarence Johnson, tickets; Misses June Bruton and Marion Sheridan, old-fashioned costumes; Miss Margaret Brady, door, and Miss Angelina Di Palma, publicity.

Entertainment will be furnished during the program, with refreshments.

Students Novena Honors St. Theresa
Nazareth College students are participating in a world-wide novena to St. Theresa of Lisieux, "The Little Flower." Since she is the patroness of missions, the devotion is sponsored by the Fremis Mission unit of the diocesan college for women.

The novena began with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at Student Hour Thursday and will end on her feast, Oct. 3, the first Friday of the month.

Final Tribute To Mrs. McLaughlin

Funeral services for Ellen Mari McLaughlin, wife of William J. McLaughlin, Sr., advertising and sales promotion manager at McCurdy and Co., Inc., were held Sept. 19 at the Robert J. Poole Funeral Home, 1305 Dewey Ave and at St. Thomas Church, Irondequoit.

Mrs. McLaughlin, 46, died Sept. 16, 1952 at St. Mary's Hospital, after a long illness. Her home was at 136 Thomas Ave.

High Mass of Requiem in St. Thomas Church was offered by the Rev. John Morgan. In the Sanctuary also were the Very Rev. Msgr. John S. Randall, the Rev. John E. Mucile, the Rev. Michael P. O'Brien, the Rev. Richard Tormey and the Rev. Cyril Carter, C.S.B.

Mrs. McLaughlin was an active member of the Rosary Society of St. Thomas Church and of the Aquinas Mothers Club. Active also in the Red Cross, she had been working for the local blood bank for the last two years, prior to her illness.

When her son, William Jr., now with the U. S. Navy at Quonset Pt., Rhode Island, played basketball at Aquinas she followed the sport with keen interest. She was also interested in baseball, basketball and football.

Besides her husband, she is survived by two other sons, Peter and James; her mother, Mrs. Mary Crowley of Elmhurst, L. I.; two sisters, Mrs. John McGowan of Laurelton, L. I. and Mrs. Frank Catanese, Laurelton, Long Island; three brothers, Joseph Crowley of Canton, Mass. and Christopher and James Crowley of Elmhurst, L. I. and one grand daughter.

Father Carter conducted services at the grave in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery assisted by Fathers Mucile and Morgan.

Coldwater Women To Conduct Sample Fair

Holy Ghost's Sacred Heart Society will open the Fall season with Rosary in the church on Coldwater Rd. on Tuesday evening, Sept. 30, at 8:00 o'clock. All women of the parish are invited.

Further plans will be made on the Sample Fair to be held at the Eagles Hall on N. Washington St., Oct. 21 at 8:15 p.m. This affair features fifty tables of samples and refreshments. Tickets are $1.00 and may be purchased from members or by calling GE 7667-W or GE 7269-M. All tickets will be sold in advance.

A Day of Recollection at the Cenacle Convent, 693 East Ave., is included in the Fall program and scheduled for Thursday, Nov. 13.

Refreshments will follow all meetings. Hostesses are: Florence Ford, chairman, assisted by Mary Young, Stella Wegman, Edna Hauser, Maude Vogel and Nora Knoepfer.

Complete Scout Program Launched At Immaculate

Three hundred and eleven boys and girls with their parents turned out for the opening of the scout year in Immaculate Conception parish on Sunday, Sept. 21.

This group is believed to be the largest and most complete scout organization in the diocese. All units were represented, including Explorer Post No. 13, Scout Troop No. 13, Cub Pack No. 13, Senior Girl Scout Troop No. 418, 4 Intermediate Girl Scout troops, and 5 Brownie troops.

Msgr. John S. Randall, pastor and honorary chairman of all scouting at Immaculate, emphasized in a talk to the young people, how worthwhile the scouting program could be. He pointed out how much scouting could do for the boys and girls of the parish if they lived up to their scout laws.

SPECIAL PRAISE was given the parents for their interest and appreciation was extended to the leaders and committees for their loyal support.

The following men and women officially took up their duties in the parish scouting program: Explorer Post No. 13, Advisor John Phillips with committee chairman Charles Walker; Boy Scout Troop No. 13, Scoutmaster Earl Woodard with chairman Paul Scotto; Cub Pack No. 13, Cubmaster Howard Palmer with chairman Louis Beidrich.

Senior Girl Scout Troop No. 418, Leader Mrs. Harold Driscoll, assisted by Mrs. John Mackel; Intermediate Troops No. 144, Leader Miss Mary Irene Kinnerney, assisted by Miss Patricia McCarthy and Miss Betty Anne Miller; Troop No. 210, Leader Mrs. Howard Palmer, assisted by Mrs. Louis Gibson; Troop No. 30, Leader Mrs. Anne Wadsworth, assisted by Mrs. John McBride and Miss Virginia Mills.

Brownie Troop No. 319, Leader Mrs. John Iervolino, assisted by Mrs. Joseph Mason; Troop No. 220, Leader Mrs. Walter Koster.

Nazareth Orchestra Set At Town Meeting Oct. 2

Nazareth Academy Orchestra with Kenneth Waide, conducting, will be the featured musical attraction at the Town Meeting to be held Oct. 2 at 8 p.m. at Rochester Chamber of Commerce main hall. One hundred experts will answer questions. Barton Baker, attorney, will act as chairman.

The meeting is sponsored by Allied Forces, Inc., an educational organization, which furnishes teachers on alcoholic and narcotic problems in the schools.

Rummage Sale Set By DCCW

Plans are being completed for a Rummage Sale to be held Oct. 2 at 178 West Main St. by the Deanery Council of Catholic Women, according to Mrs. Carl Trescott, chairman.

Members of the Council will be ready for business from 8:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m.

War Relief, Spiritual Development, Family and Parent Education and Co-operating with Catholic Charities are a few of the numerous activities of the Deanery Council for which proceeds of the sale will be used.

Articles for the sale may be left with any of the following members: Mrs. Carl Trescott, Mrs. Joseph Schnorr, Mrs. Richard Weider, Mrs. Richard San-

Youth Dances Set On Saturdays

During the month of October only, members of the Immaculate Youth Club will stage their weekly dances on Saturday evenings. This policy was decided upon because of the numerous football games that have been planned for Friday evenings.

Opening dance of this new series will be on Saturday, Oct. 4. The orchestras of Joe Nolan and Johnny Matt will afford the music on this occasion. On the following Saturdays, Nolan's orchestra will be featured.

Friday dances will be resumed on Halloween, Oct. 31, when three orchestras are scheduled to play.
