

40 YEARS IN PRIESTHOOD

Bishop Kearney Commends Syrian Parishioners' Zeal

A celebration of union, twenty-five years of close union of a devoted people with Our Lord in the Tabernacle was expressed by His Excellency, Bishop Kearney at St. Nicholas Church on the occasion of an anniversary Mass marking the Silver Jubilee of the Syrian Melchite Parish, Sunday, Sept. 28.

It was a double celebration for the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Andrew Hallak, pastor of St. Nicholas, who commemorated the 40th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood.

A Solemn Mass, offered in the Byzantine Rite by Msgr. Hallak, opened the jubilee observance, with Bishop Kearney presiding.

THE COLORFUL and impressive liturgy, which uses the Greek or Arabic language instead of Latin, was enhanced by the melodious chant of the choir.

In a short sermon, Msgr. Hallak addressed his people, giving an outline of the foundation of the Greek Catholic Church and the Byzantine Rite.

The Monsignor, who has the title Archmandrite, traced the Eastern liturgy from the reforms

Higher Studies Call Fr. Boyle To Fordham

Announcement that The Reverend Charles V. Boyle, M.S. in Ed., Associate Superintendent of Schools has been granted a leave of absence from the Diocese by His Excellency Bishop Kearney to pursue higher studies at Fordham University in New York City, was made today.

Born in New York City, Father Boyle has been a priest of the Rochester Diocese since his ordination here in 1940. He was educated at All Hallows Academy in New York and graduated from Fordham University in 1936, before going to Kenrick Archdiocesan Seminary, St. Louis, for his theological studies.

AFTER ORDINATION Father Boyle taught apologetics and ethics at St. Mary's Hospital School of Nursing until 1942, when he joined the faculty of Nazareth College, where he was professor of Apologetics until 1945.

He also served as assistant pastor, later as administrator of Our Lady of Good Counsel Church, and for four years as assistant pastor of Immaculate Conception Church.

While in New York City Father Boyle will be in residence at St. Bernard's Rectory, 328 West 14th Street, New York City.

Catholic News For German Press Planned By Visitor

A Catholic news service to service German Catholic weeklies and the secular press in West Germany is in the process of formation, a distinguished newsman from Germany said this week in the Courier Journal office.

Dr. Karl A. Bringmann, editor and political writer of Rheinische Post, publication of the Christian Democrats is the man assigned to build up the news service. The paper he is associated with has a circulation of 250,000 in Düsseldorf, Germany.

After conferring with the Rev. Patrick J. Flynn, editor, and other Courier Journal staff members, Dr. Bringmann was taken on a tour of the Christopher Press printing plant where the diocesan newspaper is printed.

IT IS PLANNED to start the National Catholic News Agency in West Germany on Jan. 1 with the chief editorial office to be established in Bonn. Other editorial offices will be set up in Munich, Hamburg and Berlin.

The agency will provide its clients with German Catholic news and Catholic news from all parts of the world.

Dr. Bringmann is vice president of the Association of German Catholic Publicists and vice president of the International Federation of Catholic Journals.

Aquinas Boys Open Magazine Sales Drive

Annual Aquinas Magazine Campaign opened Thursday, Oct. 2 and will conclude Tuesday, Oct. 14. Last year Aquinas students established a World Record in Magazine sales with a $72,000 total. This year more than $6,000 will be given to high salesmen in prize money. The top salesman will win an all-expense trip by air to Texas.

Every student who sells $40.00 or more in subscriptions has a chance to also make this Texas trip.

The returns from the Campaign are used for school improvements. The clerical work for the student project is handled by the Aquinas Mothers' Club under the chairmanship of Mrs. Shetter.

Aquinas Men Set Football Films

Jerry Deasey, Aquinas and Niagara University alumnus, has been elected president of Aquinas Men's Club for the coming year.

Plans for the new season are already under way. A membership drive will begin at once and will be climaxed with a banner meeting on Wednesday, Oct. 8, at 8 p. m. in Aquinas auditorium.

A special program including a guest speaker and movies of the Oswego game will be offered.

THIS YEAR, the Men's Club has announced a new project whereby films of Aquinas games will be financed and regulated by the organization. Bookings can be arranged through any one of the officers and coaches or speakers will be supplied by the Men's Club.

According to the new president, in this year's membership drive "the accent is on youth."

To aid in this endeavor are a staff of energetic officers: Max McCarthy, vice-president; John DeGus, secretary; and John McGuire, treasurer.
