Frank Wolfe Named Director By Trust Firm

Frank E. Wolfe, vice president and treasurer of Timely Clothes, Inc. and an active Catholic lay leader, was named a director of Lincoln Rochester Trust Co. at a board meeting Friday of last week. Wolfe, for 30 years, a member of Blessed Sacrament Church, has been a leader in various Catholic groups and has been a president of Rochester Holy Name Society Union, Rochester Nocturnal Adoration Society, Laymen's Retreat League and is one of the executive board of Family Rosary for Peace, nightly radio broadcast.

HE WAS THE recipient of the Monroe County Catholic War Veterans Catholic Action medal, this year and was largely instrumental in starting a second Nocturnal Adoration Society Center in Blessed Sacrament parish in March of this year. Born in Bethlehem, Pa., Wolfe moved to Rochester in 1911. He saw service in the U. S. Navy in World War I and entered business in Rochester shortly after as a public accountant.

In July, 1919, he joined Sol Heumann & Co. and the following year when the Keller, Heumann, Thompson Co. was formed, he became its credit manager. He was elected a director in 1925 and assistant treasurer in 1928. The company name was changed to Timely Clothes Inc. in Sept. 1933 and Wolfe was elected secretary and treasurer. In 1946 he was made its vice president and treasurer.

WOLFE IS a director of Rochester Catholic Charities, and on the budget committee of the Community Chest. He belongs to several other Catholic and community organizations. He and Mrs. Wolfe reside in their new home at 4 Creekside Lane. They have one daughter, Sister Mary Catherine of the Rosary, O.P. in the Dominican Monastery, Elmira.
