

Deaf Club Work To Benefit From Card Fete Oct. 11

The St. Francis DeSales Deaf Club and Auxiliary will sponsor a benefit card party on Saturday, Oct. 11 at 8:00 p.m. in St. Joseph's Hall on Franklin St.

This group is comprised of Catholic deaf people and the hearing parents and relatives of the deaf.

Part of the proceeds from the party will be used towards a Halloween and Christmas entertainment for the deaf.

THIS YEAR, the Club has been fortunate in obtaining a group of students from St. Bernard's Seminary to assist in the religious training of Catholic children in the Rochester School for the Deaf.

It is one of the aims of the St. Francis DeSales Club to help supply the children with missals and appropriate prayer books.

Mrs. Joseph Dzekanski and Mrs. Anthony Ange are co-chairmen of the card party. Committee heads include: Miss Rita Schur, tickets; Frank Janosko and Mrs. George Barth, door; Vernon Laeson and Mrs. Richard Brust, prizes; Mrs. John Kowalski, refreshments.

"A hearty welcome is extended to the many friends who during the past have shown such an interest in the work of the group," the committee said.

Dinner, Election Set By Auxiliary 44

Ladies Auxiliary 44, Knights of St. John of St. Peter and Paul Church, Rochester, will have a dinner in the school hall Monday, Oct. 6, at 6:30 p.m. preceding the monthly meeting.

Nominations and elections of officers will be held at the meeting.

Mrs. Florence Free, chairman, urges all members to attend this dinner meeting. Reservations may be made with Ruth Martin, GEneese 3610-R.

'Bobby' Wanzer To Guide CYA Biddy Court League

By HOWARD MEATH

Highlighting the fall program at Columbus Youth Association is the appointment of "Bobby" Wanzer, Rochester Royals basketball star, as Commissioner of the Biddy Basketball League.

Wanzer will attend league sessions, talk to the boys and help them progress in basketball skills.

Registrations are being accepted for a boys Junior Life Saving Course which will begin Wednesday, Oct. 15, at 6 p.m. To qualify a boy must be between the ages of 12 and 16 years of age and in sound physical health.

Also open are registrations to all boy members between the ages of 9 and 12 for the CYA Biddy Basketball League. The Biddy program is slated to begin Oct. 21.

CYA JUNIOR boys basketball (boys from 12 to 15) will have Oct. 18 as their sign-up date for league competition and high school boys may sign anytime during the week of Oct. 11.

Girl basketball enthusiasts (high school and above) may sign up anytime during the week of Oct. 11. In this program, it is planned to have two leagues, one for girls in high school who will play in Friday evenings and another for girls out of school who will play Thursday evenings.

Tuesday evening has been left open for those women members interested in volley ball and badminton.

THE CYA TEA dances held every Sunday from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. were started last Sunday with a large attendance. Aquinas cheerleaders under Tom Lazio gave the victorious Aquinas gridders a rousing reception at the dance. Guests of the Teen Age Club included the Aquinas football team and their opponents for the day, St. Peter's High of Jersey City.

Also open are registrations to all boy members between the ages of 9 and 12 for the CYA Biddy Basketball League. The Biddy program is slated to begin Oct. 21.

Acolytes Of 2 Churches Honor Kleinhenz Boy

Bearers, all altar boys in surplices and cassocks were: Charles Provenzano, Martin Tursi, Marius Coscin, Donald Cook, Anthony Izzorone, Robert Falzone.

All of the Altar boys of St. Francis Xavier Church were honorary bearers.

Richard is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kleinhenz; one brother, Ludwig, 11, one sister, Mrs. John Jacoby, two nieces; his maternal grandmother and paternal grandfather in Germany.

Services at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery were conducted by Father Kuchman.

Clarence Hill's Final Rites Held

Funeral services for Clarence R. Hill were held at the home, 323 Vermont St., and at St. Ambrose Church, on Thursday, Sept. 25.

Mr. Hill died suddenly, Sept. 21, 1952, at the age of 48.

Solemn Mass of Requiem was celebrated by the Rev. Robert Doherty assisted by the Rev. John A. Reddington as Deacon and the Rev. Roy F. Hagerty as Subdeacon. In the Sanctuary also were the Reverend Fathers Frank W. Mason, John J. Burke, and the Rev. Wehmann and Jacob R. Rauber.

Bearers were Albert Frank, Joseph Cashman, Jacob Gerber, and Joseph Jerry Schlerer. Norman Schullik, Honorary delegations represented the Knights of St. John, East Man's Club, Washburn Club, C.O.R.M., and the Commercial Travelers.

Blessing at the Grave was given by Father Mason assisted by Father Doherty.

He is survived by father; brothers, Peter E., Albert I., William C. and Joseph A. Hill of Rochester and Oscar P. Hill of Sodus Point; two sisters, Miss Lillian A. Hill and Mrs. Stephen J. Flaherty.

A member of the Holy Name Society of St. Ambrose Church, he was historian of John A. Sweetland Post, American Legion.

St. Charles Society Breakfast Scheduled

St. Charles Borromeo Rosary Society will open the fall season with their annual Mothers and Daughters Communions Breakfast Sunday, Oct. 5, following 8 a.m. Mass.

Breakfast will be served in the Bernard School Hall. Blanche Jennings Thompson will be the guest speaker. An invitation has been extended to all the women of the parish.

Mrs. Mary Flavin is chairman assisted by the members of her band. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Flavin, Charlotte 0838-M.

The meeting of the Society will be held Tuesday, Oct. 7, in the St. Charles School hall following the recitation of the rosary in the church at 7:45 p.m. Plans for the year will be discussed.

CYA Aid To Community Says Msgr. Vogt Opening Drive

The importance of character-building agencies such as the Columbus Youth Association to the youngsters of a community was stressed by the Very Rev. Msgr. Joseph Vogt, chaplain at industry, in a speech to some 400 workers opening the annual CYA membership drive last night (Thursday) in the Columbus Civic Center ballroom.

Msgr. Vogt, former CYA director, keyed the campaign which will extend through October 14 with a goal of 2,500 memberships.

OTHER SPEAKERS at the opening dinner included the Very Rev. Msgr. Gerald C. Lambert, CYA director; the Rev. Donald J. Mulcahy of the CYA staff and City Comptroller Emanuel V. Norton, general chairman.

At the speakers' table were John W. Gabel, chairman of the Men's Division; Mrs. Ronald McDonald, chairman of the Women's Division; Harold J. Coleman, chairman of the Special Citizen's Committee and William T. Nolan, campaign manager.

Division leaders on hand were Philip DiPasquale, John A. Dale, Francis X. Donovan, Martin M. Brophy, Mrs. Dewain F. Feller, Miss Anita Marra, Mrs. Peter J. Cornelly and Miss Mary A. McGovern.

The Citizen's Committee, comprising leading Catholic, Protestant and Jewish laymen, this week wound up its part of the drive to obtain CYA memberships.

Nazareth College will entertain members of the Rosary Society of St. Patrick's Church, Mt. Morris, Sunday afternoon, Oct. 5, at an open house.

The visitors will meet the faculty and four the campus of the diocesan college for women conducted by Sisters of St. Joseph. Refreshments will be served.

for deserving boys and girls. Campaign headquarters have been established in the lobby of the Columbus Civic Center. The first report dinner is scheduled for Monday, Oct. 6, in the Columbus Civic Center ballroom.
